Introduction

World leading ufologists, psychics, authors and scientists

- What's on their mind?
- What and how much do they know?
- And what they have told us…

In ufology and the world of the occult and the supernatural, not all the roads lead to Rome. In those fields we do not have one single Plutarch or Cicero, one Messiah and one Khalil Gibran. And as law has its penal and civil procedures, jurisprudence that changes from one country to another and even controversial verdicts ad infinitum that have puzzled the minds of juridical scholars. And as philology has its epistemology, etymology and so many colorful linguistic terminologies that have united and separated nations. And as religious thought and religions have their liturgy, prophets and saints, martyrs and popes, dogma and sacraments which created schisms and confrontations between Byzantine and Rome.

And as the art of painting created multiple styles, genres and schools, Correggio and Kazimir Malevich, the Illuminated

 Manuscripts of Armenia and evocative frescoes with hidden messages on the walls and ceilings of cathedrals.

And as world literature has its banned books and classics, Victor Hugo and Charles Dickens.
And as music has its high keys and low keys, immortal symphonies and Rap crap, Chopin and Ravel, Louis Armstrong and John Sousa, ufology and the occult in various forms and directions are no exception.
They have their own tunes and music, prophets and messengers, theories and conspiracies, outrageous claims and comforting thoughts, self-proclaimed emissaries of the stars, celestially chosen contactees with angelic messages of love and compassion to humanity, experts in the field with unshaken credentials, and documented experience in the fields, as well as sickening and pretentious theorists and hoaxers…

I have been studying and writing on these topics for almost fifty five years, and haven't yet touched the face of the ultimate truth and assimilated the full meaning of what my eyes saw, my mind confronted, and my heart rejoiced with.
Sophocles once said, "The more I learn, the more I realize how ignorant I am."

Ufology and Esoterica have also their own Sophocles and Cicero; Edgar Cayce, Danielle Egnew, Dolores Cannon, Maureen Hancock, Dr. Sasha Lessin, Eugenia Macer-Story, Dr. David Jacobs, Counselor Alfred Webre, Dr. Bruce Maccabee, Nick Pope, Dr. Lynne Kitei, and of course, their angels, demons and EBEs.
Where is the truth in all that?
Is it only in the mind or the etheric vision of the psychic?
Is it in the heated debates of antagonistic and naïve ufologists?
Is it buried under the gloomy coat of conspiracies and cover-ups?
Or simply as Blaise Pascal once said, "Vérité en deça des Pyrenées, erreur au-delà", or what Montesquieu forged on the forehead of history, "Vérité dans un temps, erreur dans l'autre"?

I sincerely hope that the truth can be found…a logical reasoning could be provided, and a "civilized" and constructive challenge will emerge from the answers of the distinguished scholars, authors, scientists, and "privileged" personalities we have interviewed.
It is my honest belief that we are bringing to the readers, the best of the very best in the business; world renowned psychics and mediums, noted scientists, jurists with pioneering work on the landscape of ufology, physicians who made their mark on the field of UFOs, international best-selling authors, award-winning stars, university professors, anthropologists who studied the Sumero-Akkadian clay tablets of Nineveh, healers, pioneering hypnotherapists, and even poets and artists, you name it…
So enter their world and learn how these bright minds and illustrious experts see modern ufology, explore the risqué and the hidden of the supernatural world, the sacred and the damned, the mythology, the truth and metalogic, and how they have explained or attempted to explain the "Unexplained" and "Inexplicable."

Enter their fabulous world on your own risk, be brave, open your mind, and if you can, a bottle of Pétrus to cheer you up.

THE WORLD OF UFOs ACCORDING TO NICK POPE

Refined in his thoughts and mannerism, warm and friendly in his entretiens and rapports with peers and the public, well-informed and discreetly sharp in his answers and commentaries, Nick Pope embodies the persona of the most "civilized" and articulate ufology celebrity.

I'm not a whistleblower

Q: They called you “one of the world's leading experts on UFOs, the unexplained and conspiracy theories.” And I do agree. In your opinion, which UFOs conspiracy theories make you think or reconsider or rethink your “final” opinion(s) on the UFOs’ phenomena?

I am saying “Final” because some folks here in the United States believe that the statements you gave while working for the British government are not always in sync with public statements you gave about UFOs’ sightings and incidents that occurred in Great Britain, after you have left your official post at MoD?

Any particular reasons for changing your opinions to a certain degree? Any particular reasons for changing your opinions to a certain degree?

Nick Pope: Before answering this question, I think it would be helpful if I began by explaining that while I left the Ministry of Defence in 2006, The Official Secrets Act binds me for life. It would be a criminal offence for me to divulge any classified information unless – as is happening with some UFO-related materials – the British Government itself declassifies and releases documents.

I think this is where a lot of conspiracy theories about me start, and I often hear people say things like “Nick Pope is still secretly on the payroll” or “Everything he says is government disinformation.”

I understand people’s suspicions and frustrations, but I am not a whistleblower, I take my secrecy oath seriously and I am not going to change my position just to try to make myself popular with the UFO community. Now, to get to the specific issue, yes, there's probably a difference between statements I gave while I was working on the UFO project and statements I make now, as a broadcaster and a journalist.

But I think it's a difference in emphasis as opposed to a fundamental difference on a point of fact. Let me explain. When Nick Pope, TV presenter Franky Ma and astronaut Dr. Edgar Mitchell, Washington DC, April 2009.

I was working at the MoD, it had been the long-standing policy of the Department to downplay the UFO phenomenon itself, as well as the extent of our interest and involvement with the subject.
I had to follow this policy and consequently, when I wrote to members of the public about this, or responded to media enquiries, I would try to send standard replies that didn't expose the detailed official research and investigation that was going on. There were other aspects of my UFO-related work - such as my liaison with Defense Intelligence Staff - that I was not able to divulge at the time.
A lot has changed since I worked on the government's UFO project: the UK has a Freedom of Information Act, government is more open and MoD's UFO files are in the process of being declassified and released to the National Archives (a process that I've been involved in, in a consultancy role and as a spokesperson). So yes, that gives me considerably more freedom to discuss this subject now than I had at the time.

Q: Nick, do you believe that some governments have in the past (Or still) participated in any alien technology program, and or tried to reverse extraterrestrial technology?
Nick Pope: I don't know.

Self-evidently, if any government had recovered or acquired extraterrestrial technology, they would try to reverse-engineer it and develop it for our own military and scientific purposes.
Furthermore, I can see why it would be in the interest of any country that acquired such technology to keep the details highly classified, so that the benefits would accrue solely to the country concerned - arguably, the nation to first acquire such technology and be able to exploit it would become the dominant power on Earth for the foreseeable future, so there are high stakes and good reasons for secrecy.
I'm not aware that the UK has been involved in an alien technology program or that we've acquired any extraterrestrial artifacts, technology or information, and I believe that I had a sufficiently high security clearance (plus the 'need to know') to have been told if such things existed.
So I'm confident the UK has nothing here.
I can't say if the US, Russia, China or maybe some other nation has acquired any such technology.
I'm a little bit skeptical, because I think we'd see some traces of it, even if it was passed off as our own discovery/invention. And yet, in just about all technology, you can see a linear progression (as opposed to a quantum leap where something seems to come from nowhere), where any new technology has its roots in older technology, or in some way builds upon previous discoveries and inventions. There's a related issue: unless we had assistance from extraterrestrials, we may not be able to understand alien technology.

Nick Pope with actor David Duchovny and TV presenter Franky Ma at the UKpremiere of The X-Files - I Want to Believe.

If the finest minds of the Renaissance were confronted with the wreckage of a modern fighter jet, would they be able to understand what it was and build one?
I suspect not.
And yet, given the age of the Universe, if we encounter a more advanced civilisation, it's likely to be millions of years ahead of us, not just a few hundred. As the writer and scientist Arthur C. Clarke once said, "any sufficiently advanced technology is indistinguishable from magic".

Pope: “There's no spaceship in a hangar smoking gun…”

Q: In your opinion, what is the most significant discovery, ufologists and/or authors of the paranormal have made in the field of ufology?
And having said that, what was the most important finding and/or conclusion you have personally came up with and reached based upon government’s files you worked on, or via your own experience in this field?
Nick Pope: I think the thing that stands out for me is how researchers in the UK have used the Freedom of Information Act to obtain fascinating government documents on UFOs and other subjects of interest to paranormal researchers, such as remote viewing (American researchers have done the same in the US, of course, and indeed ufologists from many different countries have managed to obtain UFO-related documents from their governments and/or military).
People such as Timothy Good and the late Georgina Bruni successfully used the legislation to obtain documents on the Bentwaters incident, the final report issued by the Flying Saucer Working Party, Defense Intelligence Staff studies into UFOs and remote viewing and much more besides.
These successes inspired other researchers, until it got to the point where the MoD was receiving more FOI requests on UFOs than on any other subject. It was this that led to the MoD decision to release the entire archive of files - tens of thousands of pages of documents. There's no 'spaceship in a hangar smoking gun', but plenty of case files relating to incidents where UFOs were seen by pilots, or tracked on radar, and where no conventional explanations were found.

Pope: “My most significant contribution to the field has been my broadcasting and journalism”

As for my own findings, I'm convinced there's life 'out there', but I'm not certain whether or not we've been visited. I can't rule out the possibility and I certainly think there's some intriguing evidence - but no definitive 'you can take that to the bank' proof. I'm not sure what my most important finding/conclusion is, though I was pleased with the cold case review that I undertook into the UK's most famous UFOs’ sightings; Bentwaters incident, which occurred in 1980 in Rendlesham Forest.

I also led the investigation into a fascinating wave of sightings from 1993, collectively known as the Cosford incident, and laid the groundwork for the commissioning of a highly classified study into UFOs known as Project Condign. That said, I think my most significant contribution to the field has been my broadcasting and journalism, where I've been on TV or writing in newspapers, talking about the UFO phenomenon and the search for extraterrestrial life in a serious and positive way, helping to dispel some of the negative stereotypes that this subject had in the media and with the public.

Q: We are aware of your contributions to the “X Files”. Is it safe to assume that the advice and statements (Guidelines) you gave to that TV series were based upon facts?

Or did you to a certain degree add your personal understanding of the UFOs’ phenomena? If so, please tell us about your understanding of the whole UFOs’ saga?

Nick Pope: I don't want to overstate the extent of my involvement here, so to clarify, I was approached by a senior executive with the UK division of 20th Century Fox and asked to work as a paid spokesperson for the second X-Files movie.

In view of my government work on the UFO issue and because I've written a couple of sci-fi movies myself, I get quite a lot of requests to do this sort of promotional work. However, in this case it was particularly appropriate, because the media sometimes call me "The real Fox Mulder" and refer to MoD's UFO project as "The real life X-Files".

When I met writer and director Chris Carter at the UK premiere, he told me he was aware of my work, but I had no creative input into the movie. That said, it's clear that Chris Carter knows the UFO subject very well and - like Steven Spielberg - incorporates ideas from ufology into his work.

So the UFOs and aliens that you see on shows like The X-Files and Taken are often based on what UFO witnesses and abductees report. It's a wonderful irony, because skeptics often trot out the ignorant and condescending soundbite that what UFO witnesses and abductees report is inspired by their having watched science fiction. In fact, if they looked into it properly, they'd see that the relationship between sci-fi and ufology is far more complex than they realize and that, if anything, sci-fi is influenced by ufology far more than ufology is influenced by sci-fi.

Q: What is on your agenda now? A new book? A new TV show?
A world tour?

Nick Pope: I'm working on a wide range of projects at the moment. These include an espionage/terrorism-related drama series that I've co-created, entitled The Viper Code, which is currently in development with the BBC.

I've also filmed a show where I lead a team of experts to reinvestigate the Bentwaters incident – that's currently with a US distributor.

I'm in negotiations over a proposed reality TV show and I'm involved in a number of other shows - some commissioned and some in the process of being pitched - with me as presenter, contributor or consultant. And every time a story breaks on UFOs (e.g. with regard to the on-going program to declassify and release the MoD's UFO files), the unexplained or conspiracy theories, I seem to be the UK media's 'go to guy', so there's a steady stream of interview requests coming in all the time.

I also write for several national daily newspapers as a freelance journalist and work for various film companies, promoting the release of new sci-fi movies.

But the really big news is that I'm in the process of relocating to California, having got married to a US citizen.

This will open up all sorts of additional opportunities for me, as I'll be close to numerous US film companies, TV networks and production companies. The obvious format (and there have already been some discussions about this) is to cast me as presenter of a TV show where I investigate various mysteries and/or conspiracy theories, examining the evidence, meeting the witnesses and the experts, visiting the locations, etc.

But there may be other formats (e.g. a chatshow) that would work well too. Whatever happens, I expect that things will be very busy for me.

The Glittering Mind of Alfred Lambremont Webre

Founder of Exopolitics "The science of relations among intelligent civilizations in the multiverse".

Alfred Lambremont Webre, JD, MEd, is one of the brightest minds of our time, but this brilliance is shattering many of our social perceptions of extraterrestrials and thoughts patterns.

Albert is a frightening but a necessary eye opener.

His ideas, theories, philosophy, statements and findings about extraterrestrial civilizations and aliens-humans relations on various levels have turned ufology upside down, and people are listening.

Is he the futuristic philosopher and galactic anthropologist of the 21st century? You bet.

His presence is strongly felt wherever he goes and every single time he grabs a mic.

Alfred is the author of "Exopolitics: Politics, Government and Law in the Universe" (available at www.UniverseBooks.com), a book that founded the field of Exopolitics – the science of relations among intelligent civilizations in the multi-verse. Exopolitics includes a case study of human contact with an advanced civilization on Mars.

Alfred's forthcoming book, "Dimensions: The Ecology of the Multi-verse", integrates empirical data from intelligent extraterrestrial civilizations and intelligent civilizations of souls in the inter-life and demonstrates a new hypothesis of a functioning ecology of intelligence in the dimensions in the multi-verse.

Dr. Lambremont Webre is also a journalist, whose investigative articles on multiversal research and cooperation is widely read worldwide and can be found at Exopolitics.com

Alfred Lambremont is chairman of the Mars Anomaly Research Society (MARS) www.projectmars.net, and is a judge on the Kuala Lumpur War Crimes Tribunal.

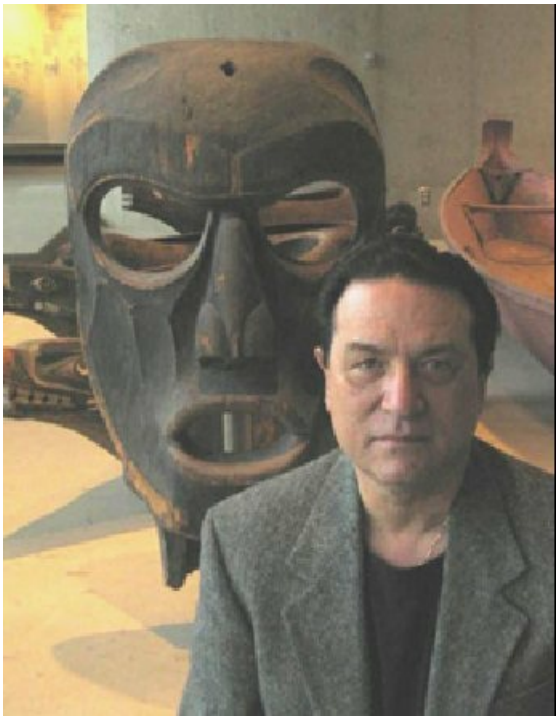
“I have had to deflect Cointelpro psyops of U.S. intelligence agencies seeking to perpetuate the Mars coverup.”



Question: You wrote on your website, “Mars visitors Basiago and Stillings confirm Barack Obama traveled to Mars”, and you added, “Two former participants in the CIA’s Mars visitation program of the early 1980’s have confirmed that U.S. President Barack H. Obama was enrolled in their Mars training class in 1980 and was among the young Americans from the program who they later encountered on the Martian surface after reaching Mars via “jump room.” These are extraordinary statements.

How did you know about these programs?

Could you please shed more lights on the Mars’ visit?

Alfred: The law of evidence is my methodology in establishing science-based knowledge about life on Mars, both indigenous and in secret U.S. space programs. The law of evidence is a methodology used by the law over centuries to establish the probable existence of fact facts by eyewitnesses and expert witnesses, and by qualified documentary evidence, including photographs, etc.

I am among the earliest Exopolitics researchers on secret Mars programs and current indigenous life on Mars, as evidenced by my original work with independent whistleblowers and eyewitnesses from the United States’ secret Mars programs, and the documentary evidence of life on Mars.

My position has been earned with research integrity, advanced methods and resources, and uncompromising determination. In the course using the law of evidence to establishing the existence of a secret Mars program that includes Mars visitors U.S. President Barack Obama (1980-83) and DARPA Director Regina Dugan (1980-83), I have had to deflect Cointelpro psyops of U.S. intelligence agencies seeking to perpetuate the Mars coverup; withstand disinformation attacks by agents of influence in NASA and the media whose mission is to continue the Mars coverup; ad hominem attacks to undermine my credibility and position as founder of Exopolitics by colleagues within the Disclosure/Exopolitics movement who are either unwitting or witting agents of the Mars coverup.

At present, I have interviewed four independent whistleblowers from U.S. secret

Mars programs, all of whom testify they have been on Mars, and all of whose testimony about Mars and the secret programs is congruent.
These are:

- 1-Michael Relfe, former U.S. serviceman on the permanent security staff of the U.S. facilities on Mars (1976-96);
- 2-Andrew D. Basiago, former DARPA Project Pegasus time travel and teleportation participant (1968-72), and Mars visitor with the secret CIA Mars visitation program 1980-83;
- 3-William Brett Stillings, former U.S. chrononaut and Mars visitor with the secret CIA Mars visitation program 1980-83;
- 4-Arthur Neumann, former DOD scientist and Mars visitor on DOD projects on Mars. Laura Magdalene Eisenhower, who turned down an attempt to recruit her for the United States' secret Mars colony in 2006, is a corroborative witness for the U.S. secret Mars programs.

THE US WAS SENDING THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS TO MARS VIA JUMP ROOM

In 1996 (Mars time), Mars eyewitness Michael Relfe was time-traveled via teleportation and age-regressed 20 years, landing back at a U.S. military base in 1976 (Earth time).
Mr. Relfe then served six years in the U.S. military on Earth before being honorably discharged in 1982. Mr. Relfe describes the two types of individuals at the secret Mars colony:
"1-People visiting Mars temporarily (politicians, etc.) – They travel to and from Mars by jump gate. They visit for a few weeks and return. They are not time traveled back. They are VIP's.
They are OFF LIMITS!!
2-Permanent staff – They spend 20 years' duty cycle. At the end of their duty cycle, they are age reversed and time shot back to their space-time origin point. They are sent back with memories blocked. They are sent back to complete their destiny on Earth." Mars visitor Andrew D. Basiago states, "When I was visiting Mars via jump room in 1981 to 1983, I was told that the US was sending thousands of Americans to Mars via jump room:
a-To establish an extraterrestrial defense posture;

b-To establish such a pattern of civilian visitation."

The Orion Greys and the Draco reptilians have been the principal parties preventing public disclosure of the extraterrestrial presence

Q: It is evident the military will never disclose the whole truth about the Roswell's incident, simply because such disclosure will hurt their credibility.
It seems to me very logical; why should they shoot themselves in the foot? Insiders and authoritative figures in the field agree that full disclosure will never see the light, but not the masses and naïve ufology activists who are screaming murder ad nauseam.
If this is the accurate and final scenario, then the general public will never know what really has happened nearby Roswell and/or about any other UFOs' sightings and crashes.
So what do you propose?
How can we crack the mystery of this infamous non-disclosure policy?
Alfred: This question is based on a false premise: that the U.S. and other governments are in fact the principal parties enforcing non-disclosure of the extraterrestrial presence on Earth. In fact, the opposite appears to be the truth – that specific extraterrestrial civilizations, the Orion Greys and the Draco reptilians (both based in the 4th dimension) have been the principal parties preventing public disclosure of the extraterrestrial presence.
The purpose of their opposition to public disclosure of the ET presence was two-fold:
1-To keep secret the human abduction program first entered into by a treaty signed between the Orion Greys (as agents for the Draco reptilians) in 1934 with the Roosevelt Administration of the U.S. government, said treaty being signed aboard a U.S. Navy warship in Balboa, Panama, and
2-To keep secret a reported plan by the Orion Greys and Draco reptilians to occupy Earth, Mars and their respective moons.
A 1964 U.S. intelligence report estimated the Orion grey-Draco reptilian occupation of Earth to be time-lined at between 2000 and 2050. The probability of eventual public disclosure of the extraterrestrial presence by the U.S. or other governments, or by advanced, ethical human extraterrestrial civilizations through their galactic governance councils has now increased.

This is because the Orion grey and Draco reptilian occupation of Earth has been defeated by the forces of a galactic governance council after a 10 year war in space and in Earth's environs, 2001-2011. The exopolitical implications of this victory, if correctly reported, are vast.
The political rollout on Earth of the Orion grey-Draco reptilian agenda was the New World Order (NWO).
The NOW has now lost its 4th dimensional back-up and will not be successful in destroying democratic human society.

The 1934 secret treaty between the Orion Greys and the U.S. government permitted human abductions by the Greys

Q: Do you believe that some governments have in the past (Or still) participated in any alien joint technology program, and or tried to reverse extraterrestrial technology? If so, please elaborate on some of the products and avant-garde gadgets we have been using, and were based upon alien technology.

Alfred: Again, the premise behind this question is misleading or incomplete, in my opinion.
The 1934 secret treaty between the Orion Greys (fronting for the Draco reptilians) and the U.S. government (see reference above), provided on its face for a certain level or permitted human abductions by the Greys (and reptilians) per year in return for specified technology transfers of grey ET technology with a military application.

In fact, these treaties (reportedly renewed every 10 years since 1934) were instruments of deception by the Greys and reptilians for the covert takeover of Earth, and the internal capture of the U.S. government via mind control, subversion and other mechanisms. The technology that was transferred became part of the tools of takeover (via mind control and subversion) by the Greys and reptilians.
Thus, for example, anti-gravitic propulsion drives that may have resulted in the creation of a U.S. Navy "space fleet" had in fact by January 2011 resulted in a proxy space fleet of the Orion Greys and Draco reptilians, operated by their surrogates-in-fact, the U.S. Navy, which had internalized the Draco agenda as its own.
To consider the above state of affairs as arms-length technology transfer is misleading in the extreme. It has only been through the combined action of upper dimensional, ethical, human galactic governance council forces that the Draco reptilian and Orion grey agenda for Earth has been defeated.

It now remains to be seen whether U.S. government entities such as the U.S. Navy, the U.S. intelligence agencies (NSA, CIA, etc.) will surrender their New World Order (reptilian) goals and mission and join the galactic governance human forces, or whether the Illuminati and its armed forces will pursue a "scorched Earth" policy and attempt to imposed the reptilian agenda (New World Order) on Earth, even as the Draco reptilian and Orion Greys have been defeated.

WEBRE: "INTELLIGENT HUMANOID AND ANIMAL LIFE EXISTS ON MARS."

Q: In your personal opinion, what are the most significant discoveries, ufologists, scientists, scholars such as yourself, and authors of the paranormal have made in the field of ufology?
And having said that, what was the most important finding and/or conclusion you have personally came up with and reached based upon data and files you have consulted, or via your own experience in this field?
Alfred: In my opinion, the most significant discoveries in the field of extraterrestrial studies include the discovery that intelligent humanoid and animal life exists on Mars.
This discovery, which ranks along with that of Charles Darwin in the Natural Sciences, was accomplished using photographs of the surface of Mars taken by the NASA Mars rover, starting in 2007, notably NASA Mars rover photo PIA10214.
This discovery was reported on my website Exopolitics.com on December 12, 2008 in a paper entitled "The Discovery of Life on Mars" by Andrew D. Basiago.
I am happy that I participated in aspects of the discovery itself, and helped in the conceptualization of the Mars species classifications and editing of the paper itself.
This classic paper, along with 60 other papers on Life on Mars, can be viewed at: www.projectmars.net.
My own work in the field of intelligent life in the multiverse, which spans from1973 to the present, has led to the development of a new social science – that of Exopolitics, the science of relations among intelligent civilizations in the multiverse. Exopolitics was founded by the publication of my first book "Exopolitics" in the year 2000.
In addition, we now know through witnesses that my book "Exopolitics" was time-traveled by DARPA from the year 2005 back to at least 1971, where it was the subject of study by the CIA, DARPA and the DOD more than 30 years before I wrote it. My work has also led to an advanced dimension-based model of how intelligent civilizations inter-act in the multiverse that is the subject of my new book "Dimensions: The Ecology of the Multiverse" to be published in 2013.

We earthlings live in a dimensional ecology of intelligent life that encompasses extraterrestrials in parallel dimensions and universes, souls in the "after-life" and spiritual beings in the "spiritual" dimensions and "God" or "Source" within a multiverse, or all that is.

This model of the dimensional ecology of the multiverse is based on replicable knowledge developed according to the scientific method about subject matters that traditionally have been issues of personal or institutional belief and religious dogma. This model includes the dimension-based typology of intelligent civilizations.

Q: As a noted jurist and scholar in the field, you have probably examined numerous cases, looked at photos, footages and videos of UFOs and similar crafts ad infinitum. In your opinion what is the most important and unquestionable piece of evidence that emerged from your research and analyses?

Alfred: At the risk of being repetitive, the best evidence rule clearly establishes that the intelligent indigenous human civilization on Mars (en extraterrestrial civilization) is by far the most documented extraterrestrial civilization with which the U.S. government has had an established liaison program since at least 1970.

Q: You wrote an article on Andromeda Council, under the headline: "Andromeda Council: Molecular and Cellular Transformation to a 4D Earth."

In the article, you stated the following:

"Andromeda Council, a reported galactic governance council composed of selected star system representatives that carry out governance and development functions in selected areas of our populated and organized galaxy and universe."

How did you know about the Andromeda Council?

And what do you mean by "Cellular Transformation"?

Alfred: As over-all perspective, I first explored the concept of "galactic governance" in my book Exopolitics: Politics, Government and Law in the Universe (www.universebooks.com).

The Andromeda Council is, from my exopolitical perspective, a "working hypothesis" that I treat as a reported galactic governance council based on the empirical evidence I receive both from its self-described human representative, Tolec, in real life a senior executive in the computer industry who has been an Andromedan contactee since the mid-1990s, and from the effects of the Andromeda Council activities on the planet as reported by organizations such as the U.S. Geological Survey, etc.

As to the term “cellular transformation” I refer readers to the Andromeda council articles themselves for their technical definitions. I preface all articles with a caveat stating that the opinions of the Andromeda Council are not my own. I now have reported on two alleged governance councils: the Andromeda Council and the Council of 8.

I have treated these both as “working hypotheses, and as interdimensional and/or interstellar phenomena. Starting in mid-2010 I first interacted with former NORAD officer Stanley A. Fulham, who for 10 years interacted with and was given much information by the 'Council of 8", a reported regional galactic governance council whose membership included the Pleiadians, the Alpha Centaurians, the Sirians and others, some of the same star systems that reportedly are also members of “Andromeda Council.”

Mr. Fulham's book Challenges of Change published in July 2010 predicted that on Oct 15, 2010 the Council of 8 UFO fleet would decloak itself over New York City.

On Oct. 15, 2010, a decloaking of UFOs over New York City in fact occurred, as did predicted UFO decloakings over Moscow, Russia and London, UK in January 2011. The question arises, then, what is, if any, the relationship between the entities known as the “Andromeda Council” and the “Council of 8”?

One alternative is that:

- 1-The "Council of 8" and the "Andromeda Council" may be two related manifestations of the same basic or related interdimensional phenomenon; and
- 2-The interdimensional phenomenon behind the Andromeda Council may be just that, interdimensional and not an inter-stellar phenomenon.

This is one alternative perspective.

It has not as yet been fully settled on the nature of what Tolec experiences as the "Andromeda Council." This is a natural state of events in exopolitics.

We in a time-space 3rd dimension reality have only a scant understanding of higher dimensional relationships and realities.

Q: What is the place and how do you describe the role of your exopolitics’ movement and concept on the landscape of modern ufology?

Alfred: In January 2006, the Associated Press reported that “Exopolitics” was nominated for 2005 Word of the Year.

“Exopolitics” was coined in Canada.

“Exopolitics” gave a name to what adult Americans had reported to pollsters at Ropers several years earlier in 2002 that American public opinion was in agreement with the existence of intelligent life on other planets.

In fact, the 2002 Roper poll on American beliefs and personal experiences on intelligent life on other planets, using rigorous scientific polling methods, found that about half (48%) of U.S. adults believe that intelligent life from other planets, or dimensions is now visiting Earth, and that two-thirds (67%) of U.S. adults believe in the existence of intelligent life elsewhere in the Universe.
The Roper poll also found that 72% of U.S. adults believe the U.S. government is not telling all it knows about spacecraft or "unidentified flying objects" visiting Earth.
Fully 14% of Americans say they have had a close encounter with a spacecraft or "unidentified flying object." Two percent of Americans told Roper that they have had an encounter with intelligent beings from other planets or dimensions.
Roper also found that among those adult Americans who believe in abductions by non-terrestrial beings, fully one-third (33%) claim they either experienced or know someone who experienced a close encounter with intelligent beings from other planets or dimensions.

Webre: "Exopolitics provides a path for minds to go where they had not ventured before."

The "Exopolitics" Model of the Universe "Exopolitics", the new political science of outer space, is the science of relations among intelligent civilizations in the universe.
The Exopolitics Model of the universe, first presented in June 2000 by this author at a scholarly conference at the University of Wyoming chaired by Prof. Leo Sprinkle, may be one candidate for triggering a crucial sea change in human perception.
The Exopolitics Model of the universe is the obverse of the 20th century canon of science, which held that all intelligent life ends at earth's geostationary orbit.
The 20th century penalty for any professional, educator, journalist, or government official not towing the scientific canon that only earth harbored intelligent life was probable loss of employment, professional status, and harassment by government authorities.

The Exopolitics Model holds that we live in a highly populated universe filled with intelligent, evolving civilizations operating under universal law, with governance systems and mediated by universe politics.
We on earth are just becoming aware that we live in a populated universe.
Like all models, Exopolitics provides a path for minds to go where they had not ventured before.

The Exopolitics Model provides the interface between human and extraterrestrial societies.
The Exopolitics Model is a human version of the 100 monkeys syndrome - that 100 monkeys washing their yams on one island will result in all monkeys on all islands washing their yams. Exopolitics allows us all to internalize a truth: that we are part of a populated cosmos and that the neighbors are outreaching to us at this time.

As Thomas Kuhn (author of The Structure of Scientific Revolutions) has written, scientific revolutions come about in paradigm-shifts, in sea-changes about the way that our entire human species chooses to see its reality. No amount of scientific data will change any single individual's mind about humanity's living in a populated universe, filled with diverse advanced civilizations, some of which are seeking to engage us now.
Each person has to want to change her or his own mind, on the basis of available data and context.
Here is some hard, scientific evidence that the exopolitical paradigm shift is well underway. More adult Americans (67%) believe in the existence of intelligent life on other planets than voted in the historic 2008 U.S. Presidential election (61.6% of eligible voters) of President Barack Hussein Obama in the largest voter turnout in 40 years.

Dr. Bruce Maccabee
American Ufology Giant!
When Bruce Maccabee talks, everybody listens! For he is the ultimate "Scientific Ufologist", period!

A petition to the White House to establish a study of unexplained sightings.

Q: You have stated on more than one occasion, as well as on Bill Birmes' "UFO Hunters" TV Show, that the military will never disclose the whole truth about the Roswell's incident, simply because such disclosure will hurt their credibility. It seems to me very logical; why should they shoot themselves in the foot?
Insiders and authoritative figures in the field agree with you, but not the masses and naïve ufology activists who are screaming murder ad nauseam.
If this is the accurate and final scenario, then the general public will never know what really has happened nearby Roswell and/or about any other UFOs' sightings and crashes. So what do you propose?
How can we crack the mystery of this infamous non-disclosure policy?
Dr. Maccabee: Sufficiently intense public pressure could have an effect on the elected officials who could than provide pressure on the various branches of the government that might have information.
Public pressure worked in the middle 1960's when there was a period of numerous sightings throughout that USA.
There was such a large amount of criticism of the way the Air Force (Project Blue Book) handled the public furor surrounding the sightings (this included the famous "Swamp gas" sightings of 1966) that Congress directed the Air Force to support an investigation that was independent of the Air Force.
The result of this investigation, the so-called "Condon Report" (1968; referring to the name of the Project Director, Dr. Edward Condon), is, to this day, controversial: Dr. Condon stated that there was nothing significant about UFO sightings, yet the other researchers on the project found sightings that they couldn't explain.
Thus the result of the study was less than satisfactory for both the pro and con sides of UFO investigation.
However, the point is that public pressure did result in a largely independent investigation.
There is, as this is being written, yet another attempt at applying public pressure by means of a petition to the White House to establish a study of unexplained sightings.

Dr. Bruce Maccabee: "I have no direct evidence that there was an alien joint technology program."

Q: Do you believe that some governments have in the past (Or still) participated in any alien joint technology program, and or tried to reverse extraterrestrial technology? If so, please elaborate on some of the products and avant-garde gadgets we have been using, and were based upon alien technology.

Dr. Maccabee: I have no direct evidence that there was an "alien joint technology program" but if one were to surface I would be only mildly surprised.
I also have no direct evidence of reverse engineering of alien technology, but again if convincing evidence were to surface I would be only mildly surprised. Of course, if the Roswell event was actually a crashed disc from "elsewhere," then analysis and attempts to reverse engineer certainly would have happened.

Q: In your personal opinion, what are the most significant discoveries, ufologists, scientists such as yourself, and authors of the paranormal have made in the field of ufology? And having said that, what was the most important finding and/or conclusion you have personally came up with and reached based upon data and files you have consulted, or via your own experience in this field?
Dr. Maccabee: A very significant discovery is the existence of a relatively small percentage of UFO sightings that cannot be explained in terms of known/conventional phenomena. The shapes and dynamics of these objects suggest that they are not "natural," unintelligent phenomena but rather are manufactured and operated by Other Intelligences (OI).
(These objects are what I call TRue UFOs or TRUFOs). Perhaps even more significant is the discovery that there appears to be some sort of ongoing program of interaction between humans or humanity and the OI. Just what this program is or what it leads to is still a mystery - at least to me - but merging of societies (OI and us) or hybridization may be part of it.

Q: As a noted scientist in the field, you have probably examined thousands of photos, footages and videos of UFOs and similar crafts.
In your opinion what is the most important and unquestionable piece of evidence which emerged from your research and scientific analyses?
Dr. Bruce Maccabee: Well, the meaning of the phrase "most unquestionable" depends upon the meaning of the word "unquestionable."
So far as I know, every single sighting has been questioned.

Therefore unquestionable must be interpreted as something like this: "the least likely to be explained after analysis."
The Trent photo case (McMinnville, Oregon, 1950) is certainly one of the most famous of all time, having been published hundreds (thousands?) of times. It is a prime example of a sighting with clear photos that is "unquestionably" either the "real thing" (TRUFO) or a hoax...there is no halfway point. This is the only photo case endorsed by Dr. Wm. Hartmann during the Condon study (1969; mentioned above; note that he changed his opinion about 4 years later).
Over a period of years (roughly 1974 - 2000) I spent hundreds of hours studying all aspects of the sighting and about two dozen hours talking to one of the two witnesses (Mrs. Trent).
I found no proof of a hoax but rather evidence that a UFO hoax, perpetuated over decades (from 1950 until their deaths in the middle '90's), would be completely inconsistent with the lifestyle of the Trents.
Thus I would say this case is "unquestionable." (Full analysis at www.brumac.8k.com/trent1.html; www.brumac.8k.com/trent2.html; www.brumac.8k.com/trent1b.html

"The unknown red object was seen by two astronauts, Jack Lousma and Allen Bean."

However, the Trent case has been questioned from the beginning and even to today as to the truthfulness of the witnesses. Even after my detailed photo analysis and discussion of the history of the photos and the Trents themselves, skeptics, despite the lack of convincing evidence, are willing to claim with great certainty that the sighting was a hoax that used a model hanging from the overhead power wires. The skeptics are not so quick to portray the Skylab 3 sighting as a hoax because the unknown red object was seen by two astronauts, Jack Lousma and Allen Bean, and seen and photographed by astronaut Dr. Owen Garriott while orbiting the earth, September 20, 1973.
This object apparently traveled along with the Skylab for ten or more minutes, which is an "eternity" for objects in orbit to be near one another (they travel at about 17,000 mph or about 5 miles per second).
The long duration of the sighting suggests that, if the object was in a normal orbit, its orbit was so close to that of the Skylab that the object should have been seen by the astronauts and/or detected by ground radar at other times (other parts of the orbit).

The first three photos show a dot of red light of varying brightness, consistent with the claim by the astronauts that its brightness was oscillating (with a period of about 10 seconds).

The fourth photo clearly shows an odd, structured image much larger than the dot images. Garriott made an interesting distance estimate based on the orbital speeds of the Skylab and the object. He assumed, because of the long duration of the sighting, that the object was traveling at the same speed as the Skylab.

When the Skylab went into darkness (passed into the shadow of the earth) he started counting the seconds until the object disappeared, assuming that the object was seen only by reflected sunlight. He counted 5 - 6 seconds which meant that the object was essentially behind the Skylab by 25 - 30 miles.

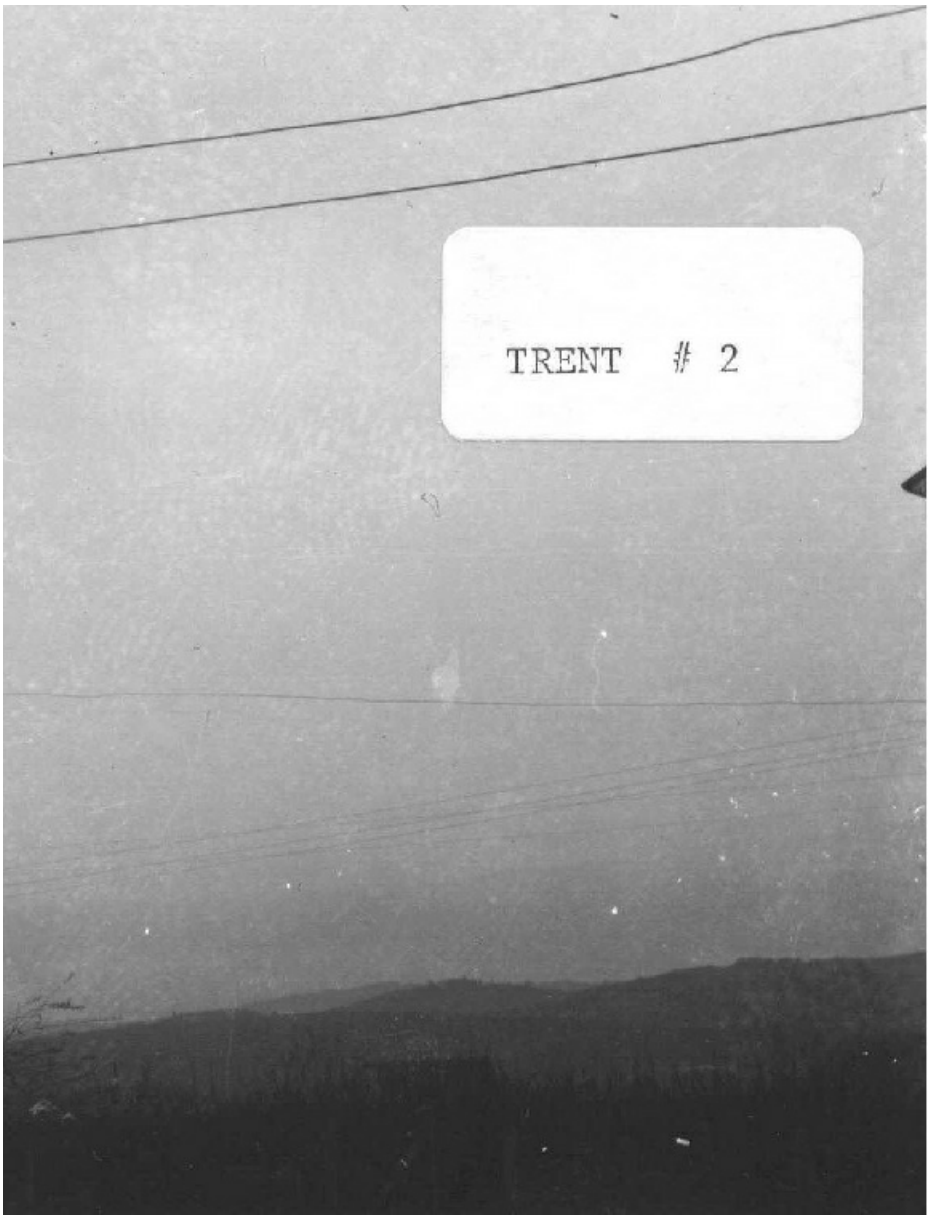
Combining the angular size of the image in the fourth photo with the estimated distance leads to an object size of several hundred feet.

There were no man-made satellites as large as several hundred feet. (The Skylab was the largest at about 150 ft.) Also, there were no red-colored satellites (typically painted white or black or unpainted metal). Whereas the Trent case could be questioned (was it a hoax?), in this case the truthfulness of the astronauts is unquestioned and the data (visual description, timing of disappearance, photographs) appear to be accurate enough to rule out any normal satellite as the cause of the sighting.

So, what was it? (Full analysis at www.brumac.8k.com/Skylab3/SL3.html)

A series of sightings occurred aboard a freighter aircraft flying off the coast of the South Island of New Zealand during the night of December 31, 1978.

Several of these involved multiple witnesses, air and ground radar and 16 mm color movies. One case in particular stands out as a sighting of a triangle of flashing light that was filmed and apparently detected by ground radar. As with most complicated sightings questions arise based on various levels of analysis.



TRENT # 2

At first glance at the color move one sees a flashing light that appears to move around more or less randomly and one might say," well, that could be anything."
One might question the cameraman's truth or accuracy in claiming that it was filmed through the front window of an aircraft while holding the camera on his shoulder…
On closer analysis the initial questions are answered: other witnesses testify to the fact that the cameraman was on board and filming. Furthermore, a frame by frame analysis of the film shows that elongated images are consistent with vibrations or swaying of the camera since it was not on a tripod.
Questions regarding the nature of the flashing light, such as, could it be a beacon along the shoreline (the plane was over the ocean east of the South Island at the time and heading toward land), were answered when frame by frame analysis showed that the source of the light was a triangular array of lights unlike anything along the shoreline or inland.
This raised the question of whether or not the light could be associated with any light on the airplane itself. A noted skeptic (Philip J. Klass) proposed that light from the red flashing beacon on top of the plane was reflected, by a propeller, into the camera lens. However, that was shown to be a physically impossible explanation, leaving a big final question mark: what was it?
(This and other sightings that night remain unexplained)
See www.brumac.8k.com/NEW_ZEALAND/NZFlashingLight/NZFlashingLight.html and for another major sighting that night see www.brumac.8k.com/NEW_ZEALAND/NZSB.html.

The complete history of the New Zealand sightings of December 31, 1978 is at www.brumac.8k.com - scroll down to New Zealand sightings and New Zealand radar sighting which are both downloadable word files).

For a final "unquestionable" sighting, consider the "White Sands Proof" sighting at White Sands, NM on April 27, 1950.
Four objects were seen flying over this restricted area where rockets were test fired during the minutes following a rocket test.
Film from a tracking camera and telescope (cinetheodolite) showed four objects calculated to be at an altitude of about 150,000 ft and about 30 ft in diameter, traveling at a high speed. As for myself, I consider this case "unquestionable"!!

There were no manmade objects that could travel at 150,000 ft. Now, these measurements were made by professional observers who were familiar with their instruments so one would expect that their reliability would be unquestioned. However, skeptics have questioned the accuracy of the calculations and proposed such explanations as high altitude balloons at 100,000 ft moved rapidly by the jet stream.

This explanation is, itself, questionable because the men who launched high altitude balloons did so one at a time, not four at a time (I assume the count of four objects was correct) and they would not launch their balloons in the area when a rocket test was underway.

Chat with Dr. David Jacobs, the World Leading Authority on Alien Abduction

"I wrote most of the information based on more than 42 years of UFO research.
In addition, since 1986 I have conducted over 1,000 hypnotic regressions with abductees.
I have tried to be as objective and as "agenda free" as possible.
I have no New Age, spiritual, religions, transformational, or transcendent program to promote.

I try to stay as close to the evidence as I can. However, there is no possibility that I have avoided error.
The majority of evidence for the alien abduction phenomenon is from human memory derived from hypnosis administered by amateurs.
It is difficult to imagine a weaker form of evidence. But it is evidence and we have a great deal of it.
Still, readers must be skeptical of what I say and of what all others say in this tangled arena of alien abductions, hypnosis, popular culture, and memory. Abduction researchers are mainly amateurs doing their best to get to the truth knowing that objective reality may elude them."-Dr. David M. Jacobs

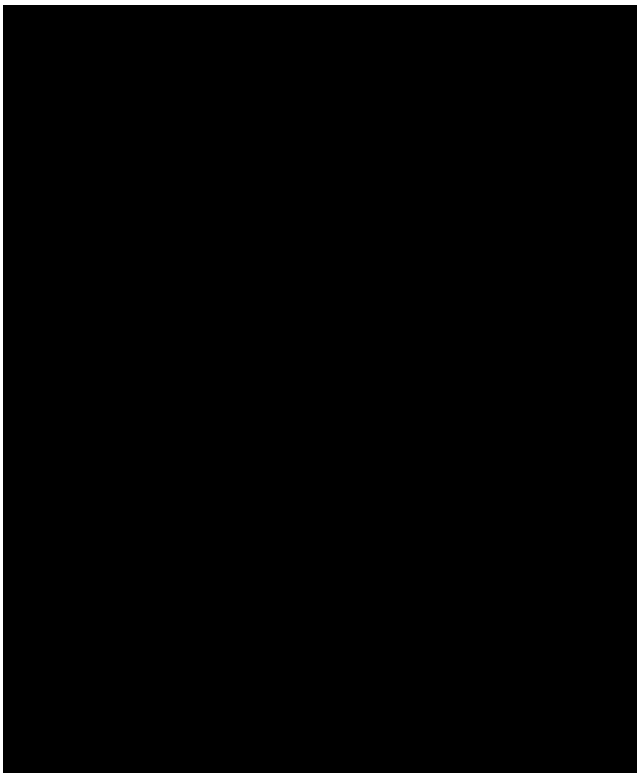
"ALIENSABDUCT PEOPLE WHEN THEY WILL BE MISSED THE LEAST."

Listening to Dr. Jacobs is a continuous delight metamorphosis and a most unique learning experience on so many levels. When he begins to talk to you about alien abduction, his words freeze you in time, for the meticulous details he provides and depicts (Based upon abductees' accounts) of the step-by-step alien abduction phases are as piercing as the eye of the Creator, and are as organized as the elegant ticking of a Swiss watch. No wonder why millions consider Professor Dr. David Jacobs the world's foremost authority on the alien abduction phenomenon.
Add to this, his academic qualifications, teaching experience, his overwhelming knowledge of world history and culture, and that most delightful and comforting personality, and you get ipso facto, the world's greatest raconteur, scholar and connoisseur of the most enigmatic, (frightening to many, reassuring to few) and extraordinary aspect and nature of aliens-humans interactions and beyond; call it abduction if you prefer. Grosso modo, Dr. David Jacobs is a fascinating and captivating personality!



Once abductees understand their situation, they quickly learn that their world is not as strange as they thought.

Q: Your book “The Threat” took the world by storm. And almost every week, it is on the amazon.com list of the 100 best-selling books in UFOs, the occult and supernatural categories.
We checked the list. Having said that, in your personal opinion, what is the most important message or perhaps, should I say, a warning or a lesson, an abductee could get from reading your book?
Dr. David Jacobs: The book was written for the general population, but abductees can benefit from knowing that they are not alone, that the events described in Secret Life and The Threat have happened to perhaps millions of people around the world.
They can also understand that they do not live in the bizarre world that many abductees think they live in.

They have had a great number of unusual experience that they assume are either normal or paranormal in that they think they have seen ghosts, deceased relatives who come back to say everything is okay, or religious figures, especially angels, or that they have traveled on the Astral Plane and so forth.

Once abductees understand their situation, they quickly learn that their world is not as strange as they thought it was and that most, if not all, of their odd experiences have a common origin.
Unfortunately, they also learn that they cannot stop the phenomenon, that they will not remember a great deal, if not most, of their experiences, and that the abductions will continue long after they have stopped seeing me.

Waiting room where clothes are removed prior to procedures.

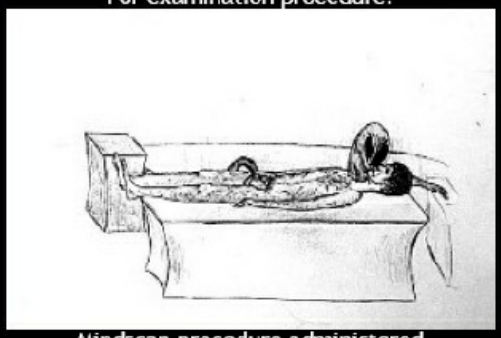
Aliens approach with instruments
For examination procedure.



Mindscan procedure administered
While sperm is taken.

Q: Why, where and how the aliens abduct people, and to what destinations or habitats do they take them?
Is it underwater bases, remote areas, military bases, or something else?
Could you please describe to us the aliens' habitats? What the abductees do there besides giving their eggs and sperm?
Dr. David Jacobs: Aliens abduct people when they will be missed the least.
This means that they will usually not be abducted while at work (although that sometimes happens) or in the stands of a sporting event, or in other places where they are surrounded by people.
But it also means that they will be abducted when they are alone at night or during the day, when they are in bed, when they are asleep (although they wake up for the abduction), when they are driving, or with a small group of family members or friends.

Abductees routinely describe other abductees they see on board as looking like "Zombies."

A typical abduction consists of an abductee being taken out of his/her normal environment and into a UFO.
Abductees are then walked into a waiting area where their clothes are removed and they sit on a ledge with other abductees waiting for their escort to come and take them out to begin their procedures.
Abductees cannot actively engage in an oppositional behavior, usually they cannot run, shout, or even ask questions. They routinely describe other abductees they see on board as looking like "Zombies."
They then begin a series of procedures on the abductee which includes sperm and egg taking, fetal implantation and extraction, and deep staring into their eyes, often from a distance of an inch or so.

Human child plays with hybrid children, watched over by a gray alien.

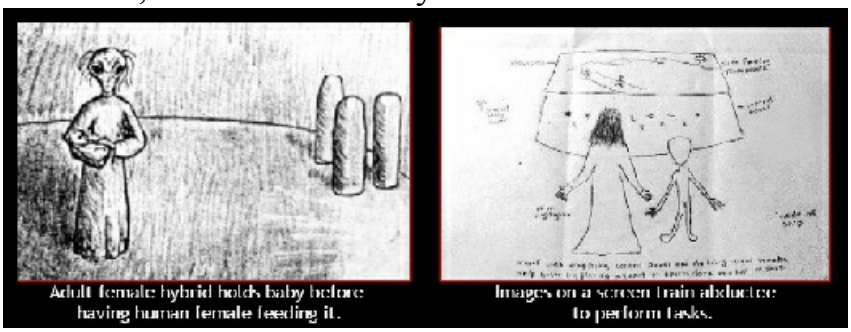
Adolescent hybrid female with large black pupil.

This neural engagement which allows for the alien to use the optic nerve as a conduit to other neural sites in the brain in order to make the abductee "see" images and/or have emotional responses. All of this depends on what use they will put to the emotional responses and images. They also have what is almost certainly a physical neurological examination. For many years most abduction researchers had thought that the reason for the abduction was to inspect, examine, and learn about us physically and mentally. This turns out to be false. Abductees often have these types of exam procedures, but they are never abducted just for an examination. Abductees are often walked into another room where they see babies or toddlers or young children.

OFTEN HYBRIDS WILL DO ALIEN-TYPE PROCEDURES ON ABDUCTEES

These beings look like crosses between alien and human. In the 1980s my late colleague Budd Hopkins labeled them "hybrids."
The abductee must interact with these hybrids by playing with them holding or hugging them, teaching them, and interacting in other ways.
They see these hybrids as older children, adolescents, young adults and adults.
They do not see them as older adults for reasons that we do not know.
Often hybrids will do alien-type procedures on abductees.
Some abductions are conducted only by hybrids with no aliens present. Hybrids have been growing progressively more human-like and abductees have been led to believe that there will be a Change sometime in the future and soon hybrids and humans will all be together here on earth. I have heard this so many times in so many different ways, that I have come to think that this is the reason for the abduction program: The integration of human-like aliens into the society.
However, I do not know why.



Adult female hybrid holds baby before having human female feeding it.

Images on a screen train abductee to perform tasks.

This is the jackpot question of abduction research.
For the most part the abductees stay on board the UFO.
On some rare occasions they might find themselves in some remote location, but the number of these cases is so small that one is never sure of whether they are envisioning this in their minds or if they are actually there.
The vast majority has all their procedures done on board and the craft usually is not too far away from where they were abducted. We do not have any serious information about where the aliens come from; if they live on another planet or if they live exclusively on the UFO.
We have almost no back story about alien life in another place. The concept of an alien "base," underwater or somewhere else might be true, but I have found no evidence for it whatsoever.
I seriously doubt that they even need a base.

"There are indeed hybrids walking around here."

Q: Are there aliens and/or hybrids among us? Where? Why are they here? And can we recognize them? And how?
Dr. David Jacobs: I used to love this question because it gave me the opportunity to say, "Absolutely not! There is no evidence at all that hybrids are walking around amidst us. By saying this I sounded reasonable and sane. Now, I do not have that luxury.
The evidence as it has been developing since 2003 suggests extremely strongly that the integration program has begun and that there are indeed hybrids walking around here.
I say this with a great amount of embarrassment but I am required to go where the evidence leaves me although others will think that I am insane.
Some of the abductees I have been working with for many years began to tell me that they were helping hybrids integrate into the society by teaching them how to look normal.
They teach them how to dress, how to make a bed, speared out furniture in an apartment, and so forth. If I discovered this in southeastern Pennsylvania, the possibility that I have discovered something that is starting here is ridiculous.
The fact that I have found it within a hundred miles of my home suggests that it is happening everywhere. This is the Change that the aliens have talked about for so long.
I must say that I do not like what abductees have been telling me.

Aliens are from outer space and not from Earth or from Zeta Reticuli

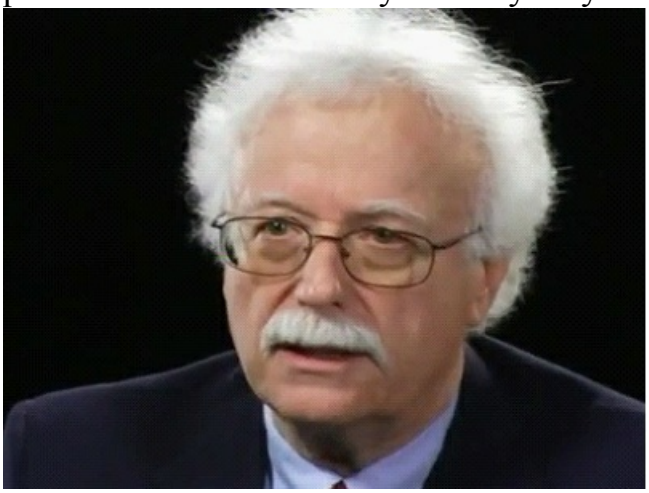
Q: Are those aliens who abduct people from outer space, a different dimension, Zeta Reticuli, other stars' systems, or as it was suggested by some ufologists, they are from right here: Earth?
Did your patients or abductees describe and explain to you during and outside hypnosis sessions, the abduction process, stages and why they were abducted?
Dr. David Jacobs: My best guess is that they are from outer space and not from Earth or from Zeta Reticuli. Being from Earth would be incomprehensible to me and there is no evidence for it. Being from the Zeta Reiculi star system also has built in problems that make it very unlikely they would come from there.



They could, of course, be from another dimension or a parallel universe. But frankly, these matters do not interest me. How they got here -- propulsion, wormholes, etc., is also not too interesting to me. I am not a scientist or an engineer. What does interest me is why they are here and what are they going to do to us.
This is the bottom line. This affects all of us. I suppose the other questions are intrinsically interesting but they are technical and astronomical in nature and they do not have direct bearings on our lives.

They have been abducted because of their family lineage.

Abductees don't know why they were abducted when they first come to me.
They learn that the abduction phenomenon is intergenerational and that invariably one or both of their parents were abductees before them.
They also learn that have been abducted since infancy (mothers and fathers have been abducted with their babies). So, they have been abducted because of their family lineage. Unfortunately, the phenomenon is growing.
Abductees who have children with non-abductees will find all the children are abductees.
When they grow up and have children with non-abductees, all their children will be abductees. The phenomenon spreads vertically down through the generations and laterally across the population. It also happens with great frequency (less so with men) for some people it can be monthly or weekly or even daily. In the past decade, I think that the phenomenon has increased in frequency for some people who are more involved in the hybrid integration program.
They come to me to remember what happened to them. When proper hypnosis has been applied to them with agenda-free questions, they remember great amounts of what happened to them.
They can't remember every abduction event because there are too many of them. But, they remember enough to understand that they have found themselves in a program not a study.
As a program it has a beginning, middle, and an end.
It is goal directed. The beings are here for a reason and because it is a clandestine program, it automatically means that they do not want us to know what they are doing to us.

Q: What's next on your agenda?
Dr. David Jacobs: I am working, very slowly, on three books and I still do speaking engagements even though I have recently retired from Temple University.
I need to have a fire lit underneath me so that I can finish these books and then do some serious television watching.

Q: You said abductees are taken to the UFO, and not to aliens' habitat.
So the UFO must be huge, beyond belief, since many abductees including women, men, children, aliens and hybrids are inside. So how big is this UFO?
Dr. David Jacobs: The size of UFOs varies with the types of procedures that will be given to abductees. The smallest ones usually have one or more tables in them and are used primarily for egg and sperm harvesting.
Abductees describe other craft that might have 25-50 tables in them and several rooms for other procedures. The largest UFOs can have a hundred or more tables, numerous rooms within it and even contain space for smaller UFOs to be housed.
In these objects, abductees report a greater variety of procedures, and training.
Q: Didn't the aliens tell the abductees where they came from?
Didn't they describe their world (Planet, star, galaxy) to the abductees?
Dr. David Jacobs: Gray aliens rarely engage in substantive conversation with abductees. They do not describe where they came from or anything about their lives before working on a UFO. That might be because describing planet where they came from is difficult.
We have names and numbers for many star systems. However, there is no indication that these beings would know those names and numbers. If they came from another star system and they have a name for the planet, saying it would mean nothing to an abductee.
Q: You said aliens don't need a habitat, because they have their UFO?
What do you mean?
Dr. David Jacobs: Abductees do not give credible evidence about another alien habitat.
There is some evidence that these particular aliens were created especially for working and living on a UFO. One has to remember that the gray aliens are just that -- alien.
By that I mean that they have a different biology in their bodies and they have brains that are capable of doing things that we cannot do, like link into a person's neurological system from a distance. Without that ability there would be no abduction phenomenon.
People are rendered passive from a few minutes before the abduction begins until it ends. They can do other things with their minds that we cannot do. Their social lives are completely unknown.
People do not describe recreational or resting rooms for them, there is no aesthetic quality inside the UFOs, all conversations are telepathic, so it is a quiet environment other than the clanging of instruments, shuffling of feet, and grunts and groans from abductees.
Therefore, these beings have no knowledge of music or external varieties of entertainment through their ears.

They have a restricted emotional range and therefore they have no knowledge of art, theater, hate, passionate love, and so forth.
In other words, they are truly alien and their function is to work. But they know that two and two are four.
They have rationality, logic, technology, and the ability to carry out a massive plan of abductions around the world without being noticed except by a small number of people. But it seems to me that some of these aliens must go beyond just work.
It is probable that the UFOs and all the equipment on board had to be thought out, designed, and manufactured in some other place, perhaps the habitat of some of the aliens.
In my opinion, that place of planning and manufacturing could be a habitat. I hope all this makes some kind of sense.

DOLORES CANNON

Dolores Cannon, a mesmerizing personality, an international speaker, who has lectured around the globe, and the author of 17 books which were translated into twenty languages, has been involved with hypnosis since 1968, and with past-life therapy and regression work since 1979.
She developed her own technique which she currently teaches worldwide. In 1986, she expanded her investigations and meticulous research into the UFO field, and conducted on-site studies of UFO landings, and the Crop Circles in Great Britain. Dolores said that "The majority of her work in this field has been the accumulation of evidence from suspected abductees through hypnosis."
Dolores Cannon has investigated UFOs for twenty years, and used her skills as a regressionist to "help people that had been involved in abduction cases" as she publicly stated.
Almost on a regular basis, her books are listed on amazon.com best selling books list, and in November 2011, her "The Convoluted Universe Series", was ranked 3 on the list of the 100 best selling books in ufology and the supernatural. Some of her most fascinating books that made a big buzz are "Legacy from the Stars", "Conversations with Nostradamus", "Jesus and the Essenes", "Keepers of the Garden", "The Custodians", and the phenomenal work "Between Death and Life".
This fascinating woman was the first American to receive the Bulgarian "Orpheus Award" for the highest advancement in the research of psychic phenomena.
Despite some sharp and bitter criticism from those who fish in murky waters, and are so many unfortunately, Dolores Cannon remains one of America's most read authors, and admired pioneers in the field of hypnosis and past-life regression.
Some of Dolores statements raised red flags, especially when she claimed that she "was able to establish communication with the living Michel De Notredame, better known as the prophet Nostradamus."
But Cannon stood on solid ground, and overcame all challenges and accusations, when she published the three volume set "Conversations with Nostradamus", the series on the translation of Nostradamus' quatrains, which included the translation of almost 1000 prophecies; her fans and the believers in the prophet and sage of Aix-en-Provence, consider her work as the most impressive and accurate interpretation of his prophecies ever printed.

The "Watchers" have been involved with the creatures of Earth from the beginning of life on this planet.

Q: The title of your book “The Custodians: Beyond Abduction” is challenging. Are you referring to Aliens as “Custodians”?
And custodians of what? And why the cosmic knowledge, aliens possess is not revealed to us in a global manner?
Dolores Cannon: I call them “Custodians” and “Watchers” because that is their job. They have been involved with the creatures of Earth from the beginning of life on this planet. Thus they are our custodians, our caretakers. The title of another one of my books is Keepers of the Garden, because we are the garden and they are the ones who take care of us. We were intended to be a species that would be perfect, never get sick and only die when we wanted to (just as they are).
But something happened (reported in my books) and this did not happen as they wanted. So one of the main reasons for the “abductions” is to monitor the species and see how it is doing physically. They are very concerned about the effects of the food and environment on humans.

Dolores: “By testing humans they are trying to develop cures for anything that is life-threatening.”

They are also concerned about the increase of certain diseases such as cancer. By testing humans they are trying to develop cures for anything that is life-threatening, and these cures will be passed along to doctors and scientists (on a subconscious level). This is only one reason for the interactions. Another is explained in my new book The Three Waves, because of the call that went out throughout the universe that Earth was in trouble.

Volunteers were recruited to come to Earth and help at this crucial time. These volunteers have never lived on Earth before, so it has been very challenging for them to be here.

Many of these volunteers were ETs who were quite happy living on spaceships or on other planets.

“The ETs are merely taking care of their own.”

Because of the harsh conditions of Earth, these volunteers have to be monitored and their energy adjusted so they can exist here. Thus the ETs are merely taking care of their own.

People think these things are being done against their will, but that is not true. “They” cannot do anything without the person’s consent. When the person is on the spirit side before coming to Earth for this lifetime, they make their Life Plan.

These are things they hope to accomplish when they return.

They also make contracts with everyone who will play a part in their new life. When they are working on this plan, they are told of the ET project that will be going on during their time on Earth, and they are asked if they want to be a part of it.

If they consent they sign a contract and it becomes part of their Life Plan. (Much of this is explained in my other books about life after death.) The problem is that when you enter the human body, you forget your plan, so when something like this happens, you don’t remember that you have agreed to be a part of the experiment. If the person doesn’t want to a part of it anymore, all they have to do is say they want out.

They are allowed because they do not want people with that type of attitude to be involved. This work is too important. They are here to help save the Earth.

They have just forgotten their mission.
Q: What are the different categories and species of aliens who have interacted with us on any level? How did the abductees describe the aliens who either contacted them or abducted them?
Dolores Cannon: You asked about the different types of aliens, there are so many it is impossible to categorize them.
It is like the Star Wars or Star Trek movies. They come from all over the universe to serve on these spacecraft. Some have such bizarre appearances that you would not understand how they could be alive.
The humanoid shape is the most popular: the torso, head, two arms and two legs, because it is the most useful.
But that shape can take many different forms, depending on the biological line the species followed. We followed the mammal line, others have followed the reptilian line, or the insect line.
Q: In your long career as an author, a teacher, a lecturer, a guide, and hypnotherapist, have you encountered a presence or had any kind of experience with a parallel dimension?
Dolores Cannon: Yes, and I have written at length about my encounters and my experience. I encounter them many times in my therapy work. You have to first understand dimensions, and this is explained in my books also.
Q: In your opinion what is the absolute proof or a piece of evidence that aliens do exist and physically interact with people?
Any particular case or an example that illustrates the reality of these phenomena?

Dolores Cannon: You asked about proof that aliens do exist, well, I don't need proof because in my years of research in the unknown I know beyond a doubt that they do and that they are constantly interacting in beneficial ways with humans.

It has been said that no amount of proof will ever convince a true skeptic, and a believer does not need any proof. I like to compare my work with scientific experiments. If a scientist conducts the same experiment many times and it is successful, it is considered proof.

What is the difference?

If I get the same answers through thousands of different people, doesn't that count as proof?

Doesn't that give the work validity?

Q: Have you been contacted by aliens or beings from another world?

Dolores Cannon: No, I have never been contacted by aliens or beings from another world, expect through my clients.

I would much rather remain the objective reporter than be an active participant.

Q: What's on your agenda now?

Trips, seminars, new books?

Dolores Cannon: I have just returned from lecturing to packed houses all over the world, and I have the entire year of 2012 already filled with more trips everywhere.

More and more countries want to hear what I have found in my 45 years of exploring the unknown.

My two new books have been written (this makes 17 now), and I am working on three more.

EUGENIA MACER-STORY

Eugenia Macer-Story is one of the finest authors in a multitude of fields. Eugenia is a playwright, a social thinker, an artist, a philosopher, a producer, a poet, and an authority on esoterica and in the metaphysical arena. Her style of writing is captivating and the "genre" of ideology and thoughts she brings to the landscape of ufology and neo-philosophy is unmatched in its substance and sparkling originality.

Q: What are the weaknesses and strength of modern ufology?
Eugenia: One weakness of modern ufology is the dependence on second hand accounts posted on Internet. This makes it easy for fraud and illusion to slip by if the questionable tales are well-written and/or videoed.
On the other hand, candid video accounts of an incident which document the on-site surprise are valuable whether or not the object sighted turns out to be genuinely unexplained.
Also a foible is the tendency to "play scientist" by some of the self-appointed or professional investigators. One does not needs to be a rocket scientist to discern who might really be upset due to a shocking incident or series of incidents and who might be trying to gain attention for other reasons.
I think the attitude of "reporter" or "investigator" is more effective. One goes to the site and interviews people and then might use technical analysis of soil samples, photos and so on.

The anomalous effects Often, also, I have found that ordinary documentation on site, such as a snapshot of witnesses standing near the site or a small piece of plastic or metal collected at the site later on shows anomalous effects. It is unwise to "come to conclusions" as a reporter whilst being videoed onsite for YouTube. The simple reporting of details is more effective-with analysis coming later in written form.

Past legends and poetic epics may be based on actual events

Q: Many scholars believe that the Sumero-Akkadian Epics found at Nineveh Library in Iraq, were the "prototypes" of the Bible's major stories, such as the Garden of Eden, The Great Deluge, Noah, Genesis, so on. What is your opinion on that?
Eugenia: I have not directly studied these artifacts in the library at Nineveh. I do think that past legends and poetic epics may be based on actual events which were handed down in the oral tradition by people who were not literate and/or regarded the spoken word as primary.
In the Middle Ages in Europe the "Art of Memory" was practiced by scholars learning information from a source which they did not copy in writing as the only written account was a huge sacred or otherwise valuable book preserved in a monastery or central library.
In this memory discipline, the blueprint of a building was committed to memory as the scholar walked through the physical premises, associating concepts and facts or place names with the structure of furniture of a building paced out in sequence.

In other words: the concept "electrical power jars" might be associated with a small ornate chair in the room and the two items memorized together so that if the scholar forgot the concepts the memory could be recovered by looking at the blueprint containing the sketch of a chair. This is somewhat similar to our coding wherein a pre-set "security question" can be accessed to remind of a forgotten password.

"We need to keep a very open mind."

Of course, this is a very different way of thinking than our modern assumption that the narration in written form defines information. I use the example of "power jars" because clay jars evidently used as a form of chemical battery were also found in Iraq and were in the museum there before artifacts were moved due to various conflicts in the region. I think we need to keep a very open mind on the past as in the present we are using "copyrighted" electrical devices which we do not have the plans to reconstruct should there be a catastrophe. This is because the actual structure of these objects is functionally understood by a limited group of people who actually manufacture the products and acquire the materials.

There is more than one type of knowledge, and not all knowledge is in narrative, written form. Practical instructions are often transmitted by oral description accompanied by a diagram and hands-on demonstration.

Controversy on the "beam ships" of the controversial Billy Meir sightings illustrates this lack of understanding.

Q: In you opinion, what is the most important discovery or finding in ufology history and extraterrestrial field?

Eugenia: It is hard to say what is "most important" because there is so much opinionated discussion.
I think that the radar traces and/or photographs which show objects appearing and disappearing in whole form are extremely important, as are the witness accounts of solid craft which appear and disappear.
This indicates a control over the apparent shape of molecular mass which our scientific knowledge does not yet completely understand.
Controversy on the "beam ships" of the controversial Billy Meir sightings illustrates this lack of understanding. We should pay attention to the initial material in which Meier as a witness states that the ships can open a "beam" down which a being travels to speak with him whilst he is also in the path of the beam.
What might this mean?
It indicates that there is a selected 3-d area which can be altered so that a deliberate dimensionality utilized by the ship permits a being to enter our accustomed environment.
This type of effect may also be true of the famous sightings of the Blessed Virgin at Fatima, Portugal in the early 20th Century which predicted the sighting of a spinning disk which has never been explained. There are other instances of solid craft being seen and photographed, such as the controversial George Adamski sightings, which actually have never been refuted or explained. The waters are muddied by attention to the eccentric life or problems of certain UFO witnesses. But this is the wrong focus.

The mysterious "intelligences" have entertained us-but sometimes in a bizarre and terrifying way

We do not judge the reality of a strange car accident, for example, by the fact that one of the people tangled up in the accident was dressed oddly or has an argument with a fellow passenger or spouse. We judge the event by actual photographs and eye-witness testimony which allows the analyst to gradually focus on understanding the incident itself for insurance purposes or a journalistic account.
"UFO" evidence should be treated in the same way.
If a "telepathic message" brought the witness to a place which is not on their ordinary itinerary this should be noted matter-of-factly and not with suspicion.
Was a UFO seen in this unaccustomed place by others?
What's the evidence?
One of the most convincing proofs for the existence of "higher guidance" in the sense of more advanced cognition than human body-brain function is the fact that very often the "telepathic impulses" of UFO witnesses do bring them into contact with unexplained sightings of craft and/or lights and also unexplained effects to time perception.
Of course, this indicates, as to the "beam ship" and "spinning disk" sightings mentioned earlier an alteration of our accustomed molecular structure by "intelligence" acting directly upon the entire material situation, not just as accompanying commentary.
Q: In your personal opinion, what is the strongest and irrefutable evidence of the existence of extraterrestrials and UFOs?
Eugenia: The most irrefutable evidence for contact by Advanced Intelligence is that this entire planet can now discuss these concepts and has included the "UFO" idea in books, films and comedy shows.

As we do when making information given to young children “interesting” by using animations and puppets, the mysterious “intelligences” entertained us, but sometimes in a very bizarre and terrifying way.

We do justifiably question the damage done in some of these sightings but we cannot deny the damage has been done.

I discuss the “men in black” issue in my review of the reissue of the Gray Barker book: “Men In Black: The Secret Terror” which will appear in issue #158 of UFO magazine edited by Nancy Birnes. This review also appears in a Spring 2011 issue of the Yankee Oracle Gazette which I edit.

Q: On what ground have you based your conviction that UFOs do exist, alien abductions did occur, and contactees or witnesses are telling the truth?

Eugenia: In a brief phrase: Personal experience. As a writer, I was dealing with some of these topics in plays, short stories and poetry before I had some significant and shocking experiences which caused me to think of these “ufo” incidents as reality.

Not in all cases. But in some cases. One of the early plays I wrote, in a trilogy entitled “The Voyagers”, was about a farmer who sees lights in his field and discovers that the “aliens” are impersonating movie stars.

This play was given a staged reading when I was in graduate school as a playwright in 1968. At the time, I thought it was funny, a surrealist treatment of rural UFO sightings.
The publicity of the Meier sightings during which a Swiss farmer is visited from a beam ship by a glamorous “being” had not yet happened or I did not know of it until after the play was written.

Dr. Lynne Kitei

With affection and respect, they called her the first lady of American Ufology. And to many, Dr. Lynne is a national treasure. They were right!

This is an extraordinary woman on so many levels; a physician, a world leader in health education, a producer, a lecturer, and author of " The Phoenix Lights", the most convincing, powerful and authoritative book ever written on UFOs' sightings.

Lynne kitei's book "Phoenix Lights" is the most convincing evidence of the existence of UFOs !!

Q: In your opinion, what is the strongest and irrefutable evidence of the existence of extraterrestrials and UFOs?
Dr. Lynne: Besides the still unexplained and historic March 13, 1997 AZ mass UFO sighting, called the "Phoenix Lights", to my surprise and delight, when I began searching for credible UFO cases in 1997, I discovered that there is a plethora of compelling data that to this date cannot be explained or denied.
It also seems that these elusive phenomena have been with us since human documentation began.
From pre-history Pakistan cave drawings of long extinct animals with UFOs etched in stone above them to various ancient art fragments suggestive of ETs in 15000-3000 BC cave art in France, rock paintings and engravings in Italy, Sahara, as well as petroglyphs in the Americas to references of these mysterious phenomena in the Bible to 15th & 16th Century Frescos and paintings of UFOs to the earliest known photograph of a UFO, taken at Mt. Washington, New Hampshire in 1870 to the sighting reports of a massive "airship with removable lights" seen throughout the western U.S. from November 1896 to April 1897 [six years before the Wright Brothers aircraft took flight] to the WWII "foo fighters" of 1942-1945, which were advanced aerodynamic orbs similar to the "Phoenix Lights" following planes, disrupting aircraft electronics and studied by U.S. and British intelligence, with no definitive conclusion as to what they were.
And what of the multiple sightings in 1946 of 'ghost rockets' seen in Sweden and throughout Europe and on June 24, 1947 when Pilot Kenneth Arnold was flying his airplane near Mt. Rainier, Washington and noticed a string of nine very bright metallic objects.

After telling the press that they moved like saucers skipping over the water, with an estimated speed of 1,200 to 1,500 mph, twice the speed of the fastest conventional craft of that day, these enigmatic discs became known as "flying saucers".

Then the Roswell incident

Then on July 3 or 4, 1947, the Roswell incident occurred, that many believe was an ET craft that crashed near Roswell, New Mexico, in close proximity to the 509th bomb group, the only squadron in the world that packed a military arsenal of atomic weapons.

Fast forward to the 1951 Lubbock Lights, and the 1980's Rendlesham Forest Incident where USAF were witness to strange lights or craft, and the Hudson River Valley, N.Y. unexplained giant boomerangs, and the Belgium and UK triangle UFO flaps of the late 80's and early 90's, and the St. Petersburg, Russia mass sighting on February 19, 1997, one month before ours, as well as the 2008 Stephenville, Texas UFO sightings of similar phenomena captured on radar and film.

Even though rumors abound that crashed UFO craft have been back engineered gleaning such advanced technology as fiber optics, lasers, microwave, Velcro, etc., the strongest evidence available to the public would be the thousands of credible reports from military, pilots and astronauts that our skies are periodically graced by advanced aerial phenomena most likely not of our world. From 243 cases studied in 1948 alone, a report entitled An Estimate of the Situation by the Air Technical Intelligence Center concluded "flying saucers are probably real extra-terrestrial spacecraft".

There are many more compelling cases of the existence of UFOs and ETs, including our own 1997 "Phoenix Lights" incident. Most impressive is France's Cometa Report July 16, 1997, just a few short months after our extra-ordinary March 13, 1997 statewide event, entitled "UFOs and Defense: What Must We Be Prepared For?" is a 90 page in-depth study of UFOs, complete with photos and physical evidence, authored by an esteemed team of French military, scientists, pilots, researchers, and administrators.

Their final conclusion: "UFOs are real and extraterrestrial origin cannot be ignored."

Even though I witnessed and photographed the Phoenix Lights anomalies up close and personal, I have no idea what these 'otherworldly' phenomena are, only that they are and that it is time we get this topic out in the open – address it, accept it, and study it – so we can find out who is driving these things and move forward in our own evolution.

Compelling cases:

We may or may not have the irrefutable evidence of extraterrestrials and UFOs yet, but in just the past few years, countries around the globe, including UK, France, Brazil, Mexico, Belgium, Russia and others are releasing thousands of "UFO files" in hopes that science will take a hard look at these compelling cases so perhaps one day soon we will.

Q: On what ground have you based your conviction that UFOs do exist, alien abductions did occur, and contactees or witnesses are telling the truth?

Dr. Lynne: From the extensive and meticulous investigation I have undertaken since the inexplicable 1997 AZ mass sighting, called the "Phoenix Lights", I have accumulated an abundance of credible data that speaks for itself.

Unfortunately, with increased sightings and the exploding popularity of ufology, charlatans and debunkers abound

My own photographic evidence of these anomalous phenomena captured two years, two months, during and after the statewide event, has been thoroughly analyzed by Universities, physicists, and Navy optical experts. To this day my 35mm evidence cannot be explained in any "Earthly" context.
I cannot speak for all 'experiencers' and certainly cannot verify others' validity, but as a first-hand witness to the "Phoenix Lights", I consider my experience, as well as corroborating, detailed reports from thousands of others statewide, as a benevolent 'contact'.
Alien abduction is not my area of expertise, so I cannot address that cryptic scenario. But I can confirm that in almost 15 years since the AZ incident, there has not been one report of harm, threat or abduction associated with the "Phoenix Lights".

Q: What are the weaknesses and strength of modern ufology?
Dr. Lynne: On the positive, it is heartening that the ridicule and dis-crediting associating with modern ufology is dissipating, as more and more credible witnesses and scientists join in sharing and investigating this fascinating topic. The "Phoenix Lights" case was the first mass sighting to have Internet chat rooms discussing the event and the enthusiastic blogs continue to this day.
With the popularity of Internet postings of credible sightings & photo evidence, as well as websites and threads discussing the most viable cases, hopefully modern ufology will grow stronger and the stigma of reporting UFO events will be a thing of the past. Unfortunately, with increased sightings and the exploding popularity of ufology, charlatans and debunkers abound. Let's be clear, most anomalous events can be explained.
Only a small % cannot. But just because we do not have the technology to definitively define what these things are, it does not mean that they are not real. We may just be looking on the AM dial for an FM frequency.
That is why it is vital that those in the field of ufology are conscientiously observant, discerning and prudent when evaluating cases, and that all facts and data are studied diligently before proposing a conclusion. Most in the field bring their own special background, expertise and opinion to the plate.

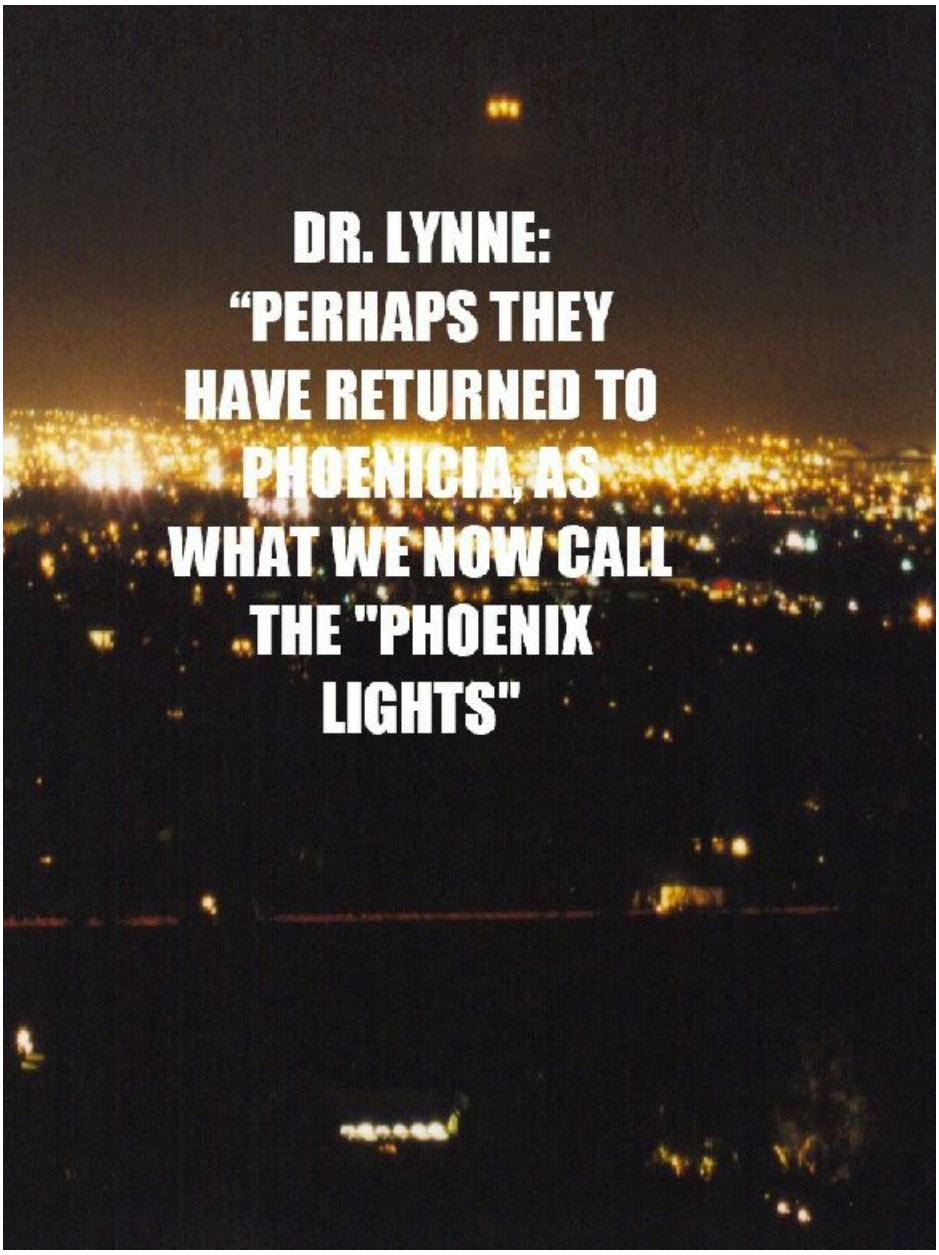
It would be my hope that ufologists put aside their egos and prejudices to join forces, as a team, so we can move forward and lend credence, as well as respect to this growing field.



DR. LYNNE:
“PERHAPS THEY HAVE RETURNED TO
WHAT WE NOW CALL THE "PHOENIX LIGHTS"

Q: Many scholars believe that the Sumero-Akkadian Epics found at Nineveh Library in Iraq, were the “prototypes” of the Bible’s major stories, such as the Garden of Eden, The Great Deluge, Noah, Genesis, so on. What is your opinion on that?

Dr. Lynne: I continue to examine the data as a healthy skeptic and would choose to study these works extensively before making an educated assessment. But as Maximillien de Lafayette has written, "Anunnaki returned to Phoenicia. The Nephilim who survived the great deluge returned to Phoenicia and the Bible made reference to their return."

As an intriguing thought, perhaps “they” have returned to Phoenicia, as what we now call the "Phoenix Lights".

Anthropologist and writer extraordinaire Dr. Sasha Lessin's views

Dr. Sasha Lessin with wife Janet Lessin, two vibrant voices on the landscape ofcontemporary ufology and study of ancient extraterrestrial civilizations.

Besides being an anthropologist, Sasha Lessin, Ph.D., is a psychotherapist who specializes in abduction debriefing and have workded with dozens of abductees.
He is a prolific author of most unusual and mind-bending essays and articles on Anunnaki and ancient civilizations.

Nibirans' mixed offspring: The Illuminati
Q: What is the most important discovery or finding in ufology history and extraterrestrial field?
Dr. Lessin: Sitchin's extensive proofs we're Nibiran/Erectus hybrids, bred to slave for gold to transport to Nibiru for that planet's atmospheric shield, then to serve as cannon fodder and economic slaves of the power elite controlled by the Nibirans and their mixed offspring--the Illuminati--to this day.

Dr. Lessin: "The massive stonemasonry is an illustrative evidence of the extraterrestrials' artifacts."

Q: Are some of the historical and pre-historical massive stonemasonry and edifices related to the Anunnaki, or Nibirans as you call them?

Dr. Lessin: Of course. The massive stonemasonry we found around the globe is a convincing and illustrative evidence of the aliens and extraterrestrials' artifacts they left on planet Earth. Our science still can't cut, move and fit huge rocks as well as the Nibirans.
They build gigantic astro-navigation landmarks-, such as to name a few, the Giza pyramids, the Landing Platform at Baalbek in ancient Phoenicia (Modern day Lebanon), and the Meso and South American observatories and refineries, monuments.
On Mars, they manned a spaceport and lasered a monument to one of their kings.
Q: Many authors and biblical scholars believe that the Sumerian-Akkadian Epics found at Nineveh Library in Iraq, were the "prototypes" of the Bible's major stories and accounts, such as the Garden of Eden (E.din), The Great Deluge, Noah, Genesis, so on.
What is your opinion on that?
Dr. Sasha Lessin: I concur.
Q: Do you really believe that Enki or any other Anunnaki gods and godesses created the human race?
Dr. Lessin: Ancient Sumerian engraving shows Enki splicing double helix DNA to create an Earthling slave prototype.
Roswell is a perfect example!
Q: In your personal opinion, what is the strongest and irrefutable evidence of the existence of extraterrestrials and UFOs?
Dr. Sasha Lessin: We have plenty of documents and pieces of evidence. Roswell disclosures give us irrefutable evidence.
Q: What are the weaknesses and strength of modern ufology?
Dr. Sasha Lessin: Hidden info and disinformation by the Power Elite, organized religion, governments, and feuding among UFO scholars.
And this concludes the interviews with some of America's most eminent ufologists.

Part Two
Questions I have received from my readers

Nota Bene: I do not consider myself an ufologist. I am simply a linguist and historian.

The Russian Underwater Bases

Question by A. Marquise, New York, New York.

Question: Is it true that a massive Russian underwater base exists one mile deep in the Marianas Trench in the Pacific ocean? If so, what activities/research/experiments are going on there? Do the Chinese have one too?

Answer:

Yes, it is true.

The Russians have a massive underwater base that was created in 1969, to study an extraterrestrial underwater navigation system called "Aquatic Plasma Corridors".

This corridor is undetectable by satellite, sonar or any other underwater detection system.

Not all branches of the Russian Navy were aware of the creation/existence of this base.

During one of their naval maneuvers just outside the perimeter of this Russian underwater base, six frogmen from one of the Russian submarines encountered three alien frogmen in metallic suits underneath a massive metallic object.

Both the Russian and alien frogmen were roughly at a depth of one hundred to one hundred and twenty feet. The alien frogmen were wearing what appeared underwater to be metallic suits of indeterminable and interchanging colors that morphed from a silvery white to bluish to grey.

One of the Russian frogmen stated that when he tried to approach these three, he was blocked by what seemed to be an invisible underwater force-field, created by the alien frogmen as a protection shield.

The Russian frogman's oxygen tanks started to fail and he quickly lost consciousness and started sinking but was saved by one of his fellow divers.

After being rescued, he described the alien frogmen as being 8ft to 11ft tall, as he saw them underwater. And none of them had any visible oxygen tanks/breathing apparatus attached to them.

In the secret debriefing that followed, the Russian diver who saved his fellow frogman, said that when he too tried to approach this massive foreign submerged object, he encountered what felt like a solid transparent wall surrounding the object.

He later described it as an oval glass box, surrounding this mysterious submerged object which also shielded it from contact with the ocean's water.
After the fall of the Berlin wall, and ensuing collapse of the Soviet Empire, rumors started circulating within the military and scientific community, that this bizarre event was in fact a joint Russian-extraterrestrial operation designed to explore the effects of the underwater plasma corridor on it's environment in the ocean, and on humans, as well as their psychological and psychosomatic reaction to encountering the corridor and seeing the alien frogmen and the ship itself.
Two decades later in Lake Baikal, other Russian navy frogmen encountered similar 9ft "silver swimmers" who also had no visible breathing apparatus.
While these encounters are largely unknown to the general public, military scientists with top clearance are well aware of them, and have worked on similar projects in different underwater bases, such as the one known to us as AUTEC, which is located off Andros Island in the Bahamas.
These massive underwater military bases, whether they are Russian, or American or Chinese, look from the surface to be rectangular/traditional compound structures.
However upon entering them underwater, they expand in all directions, and are extremely extensive. And all of them are joint human-alien operations.
Starting from the second underwater level, compartments are divided into large operation rooms, separated by elaborate long corridors, curving at 90 degrees every hundred feet or so, with doors that can drop down from the ceiling to seal off segments in the event of radiation leakage, or any matter related to internal security.
One of the interesting characteristics of these doors in the corridors is the circular porthole-like windows within what is a whitish metal of extraterrestrial origin.
None of these metallic alloys are possible here due to earth's gravity, and as such have to be done in orbit aboard the Space Shuttle. Interestingly enough, this technology has been shared by American, Russian and Israeli military scientists.
At one time British and French scientists complained of being left out of the loop, to which the Americans responded very candidly "We don't trust Europeans – especially the French!" To which the French retorted that they would withhold all information garnered from the Cassini-Huygens mission to Saturn…
An American three star general was quick to respond by saying "This is not the first time you Europeans have withheld information from us. Remember the Belgian incident?" (Aurora)
The mode of transportation down to the underwater base and within the base is also fascinating.
From the surface, one enters a craft that looks like a silvery metallic spinning top, approximately 8ft in diameter, that can comfortably accommodate four passengers, and corkscrews its way downwards centrifugally around a rod using a form of magnetic propulsion for what seems to be a only a few seconds down to an unknown depth. (With a cheeky smile, M. de Lafayette added that he did not think the Chinese yet had this technology.)

From the second underwater level on down, the "Spinning Mobile Satellite" (SMS) travels horizontally and reaches its final destination at an undisclosed level of the base at which it again dives into water. It is at that level/destination that you will find the habitat and work center of the Grays.
Only the highest level personnel with top clearance can go there. Not even President Barack Obama or Vice-president Joe Biden, or any member of Congress are allowed access to that level at these facilities. This clearance status was decided upon (jointly) by the NSA, the CIA, the United States Air Force, the DOD and NASA. Even the FBI has been excluded from this exclusive little club. This is perfectly appropriate, since politicians come and go, whilst the military are sworn to secrecy, the average career of top military brass are thirty or more years, and they take their secrets with them to the grave.

Take the example of Jesse "The Body" Ventura, former WWF wrestler, and one time governor of Minnesota: He kept all the secrets sealed from the public while in office, yet is now spilling the beans on his own conspiracy show on television!! Worth mentioning here also, is the fact that Lafayette loves Ventura, but were he General Jesse Ventura he would have kept his mouth shut.

Jesse "The Body" Ventura, a one time governor of Minnesota, and host of a TV show on government's conspiracies.

Question: Do people have the right to know all these things, including the joint human-alien ventures?
Answer:

Absolutely not! At the present time, so as not to shatter the fabric of our society and cause complete chaos and total anarchy, this information should be withheld and only gradually released to the public as set forth in the U.S.-Extraterrestrial Protocol, because humans have to be mentally prepared, in order to meet the extraterrestrial."

Stargate over Chicago

Questions from Matt Hoxtell, Chicago.

Questions: Is there a stargate/Ba'ab in Chicago? Where exactly is it located, and what does it look like?

How would you jump into a ba'ab? Is it part of the Anunnaki evacuation plan for humans upon their return in 2022?

Answer:

There is a huge cosmic Ba'ab/stargate over Chicago. But this one is quite unique, because it is called a Madkhaal, which means in Ana'kh, an entrance, rather than a stargate.

Madison Square Garden.

Not all stargates are identical, nor do they function in the same manner. There are stargates that lead to another (singular) world, an incomprehensible world of bent time-space. And there are stargates that lead you into parallel dimensions adjacent to our world.

The one over Chicago leads you towards a dimension where time and space are no longer linear. In this dimension, the laws of physics as they are known to us on earth no longer apply.

The Madkhaal is located above Grand Central Station in downtown Chicago. It is oval and vibrates like a rubber band, very similar to a multiverse membrane, found in the perimeter of the eleven dimensions mentioned in contemporary quantum physics.

It is neither visible to the naked eye nor can it be detected by any apparatus on Earth. Also worth mentioning here, is the subject of the "Anomaly of Stargates."

Stargates do vary in size, function, purpose and mobility, just like the immense extraterrestrial underwater plasma corridors, used to navigate our seas and oceans.

The stargate in New York City, which is located over Madison Square Garden, is twice the size of that over Central Station in downtown Chicago. Travel to and from the Chicago stargate is possible at particular times, however travel through the Madison Square Garden Ba'ab is a one way street.

Since the Ba'abs are at least 900ft – 1,700ft above ground, it is not possible to jump into a Ba'ab. At the time of the return of the Anunnaki, an electromagnetic fog will suck up the people with light to medium contamination, as set forth by the Anunnaki's return protocol.

Living continuously in 3 different time-space zones and the extraterrestrial Anunnaki Question by Rick D., Michigan.

Question: On the Science Channel, Dr Michio Kaku said the universe is expanding, and there are many universes he called multiverses where the same people live in different time and space zones. Is this something the Anunnaki Ulema can do?

Answer:

Ulema Master Kanazawa lived simultaneously in three different time and space zones. He lived as a real person in three different places at the same time. But the most important part of this phenomenon is the fact that while he was living around 1896 in Ryu Kyu (Island of Okinawa), he had a family of his own, and he enjoyed a normal life.

Around 1939, Master Kanazawa lived in Kyoto, and for a short time he was a special advisor to Emperor Hirohito and the Japanese Imperial Navy.

In this capacity, he advised Japan not to consider any act of aggression against the United States. During the first year of the American-Japanese war, he vanished from the face of the Earth. He reappeared in 1958 in Hawaii, and rendered the most useful services to important scientific communities. The most amazing aspect of these 3 separate lives is the fact that he has never aged. He remains the same person.

Nothing has changed at the physical level, apparently. But the truth is, Master Kanazawa did change enormously from within, at his sub-structural molecular composition. On the outside, he looked like a regular human being, like you and me. On the inside, his molecules have changed considerably.

This very change in his inner-substance allowed him to traverse time and exist continuously in three different places and three different time-zones. Master Mikami did the very same thing.

Anunnaki purification and a new identity

Question by anonymous: You wrote somewhere about the extraterrestrial Anunnaki purification, and a new identity a young Anunnaki receives after a purification ceremony. What do you mean by purification?

Since you do not believe in the existence of SOUL, what are you talking about? Purify what? Dirty laundry?

Assuming what you have said is true – I don't believe a bit of it– can you tell me in plain English how does this purification stuff happen and for what purpose?

Answer:

I. Definition:

According to the Book of Ramadosh, it means Anunnaki's student purification ritual before entering the classroom.It is composed of three words:

- a-Huina, which means, energy; life.
- b-Ta'h, which means purification, or mental cleansing.
- c-Ra could mean many things, but in this situation, it is agreed upon that Ra means the "Elevated Being".

II. Annunaki's purification and its relation to water in Judaism, Essene's sect, and Christianity:

All Anunnaki students are required to purify their bodies before starting their course of studies, particularly the first stage, called "Mental Cleansing".

This could have influenced an ancient tradition created by the Jewish scribes, who since earliest times, had to purify their body before adding the name of God into the Torah.

Ulema Naphtali ben Yacob said: "Each student must purify his or her own being "Mind" alone, because the mixing of the impurities might produce a barrier to the proper purification. Incidentally, remember the Essenes, these Judaic sect members of the Second Temple era?

At first, they used the Anunnaki's style of purification, but as time went by, and their numbers grew, they changed into a Mikvah-like, communal purification. A certain similarity can be established with the Christian baptism; it is all the same idea of purity and cleanliness.

The Christians believe that the mind and spirit are indeed cleansed by the baptism. The purification exercise occurs inside a small room, entirely made of shimmering white marble.

In the middle of the room, there is a basin, made out of the same material, and filled with a substance called "Nou-Rah Shams"; an electro-plasma substance that appears like 'liquid-light.'

It actually means, in Anakh, The Liquid of Light.

- a-Nou, or Nour, or sometimes Menour, or Menou-Ra, means light.
- b-Shams means sun. Nour in Arabic means light.

The Ulema in Egypt, Syria, Iraq and Lebanon use the same word in their opening ceremony. Sometimes, the word Nour becomes Nar, which means fire. This is intentional, because the Ulema, like the Phoenicians, believed in fire as a symbolic procedure to purify the thoughts.

III. Anunnaki's "Nif-Malka-Roo'h-Dosh":

The Anunnaki's purification does more than purifying the body. The substance Anunnaki use purifies the mind and spirit as well.

It's all very pleasant. Every minute you spend in the basin, you will feel lighter, happier, more complete within yourself and sparkling clean.

The second phase of the purification is called "Nif-Malka-Roo'h-Dosh". Nif means mind. Centuries later, it was used by terrestrials as Nifs or Roo'h, meaning Soul or Spirit. Since the Anunnaki did not believe in a 'separate soul,' the mind was the only source of creation and mental development, while humans continued to interpret it as 'Soul.'

Nif, Nifs, Nefes, Nafs, Nefesh mean the same thing in Akkadian, Hittite, Aramaic, Hebrew, Ugaritic, Arabic, Syriac, Turkish, and Anunnaki languages. Malka means kingdom or a higher level of knowledge and mental development.

Humans changed Malka to Malakoot or Malkout, and these words are used in Aramaic, Hebrew, Syriac, Coptic, Arabic, Phoenician and so many other languages.

Roo'h is the highest level of mental achievement.

The Arabs use the same word "Rouh", while the Hebrew word is "Ru'ach". However, the meaning changed in both languages, to represent soul, not "Mind" as originally understood in Anunnaki language.

And "Dosh" means revered or holy.

In Hebrew, it is "Kadosh". After this phase of purification, the Anunnaki student enters a moderately sized room off the classroom. In the room there is a cell, shaped as a transparent cone. The cell floats in the air, approximately twelve centimeters above the floor.

The top of the cell is connected to a beam originating from a grid attached to a ceiling floating in the air; it is totally suspended on its own.

The student steps inside the cone.

A door opens and the student enters the contraption. Inside the cone, a clear fog begins to form in the center. After a short while, the fog's color changes from white to silver-blue in the form of waves, and the student starts to see his/her thoughts registering on a machine serving as an information board and which is posted on the right side of the cell.

These thoughts begin to take physical shape, which is instantly copied to a screen. The screen transforms the thought-forms into a code. Almost instantly, the code is transformed into a sequence of numerical values.

The sequences are the genetic formula of the student. This genetic formula is the "Identity Registration" of the Anunnaki student. In terrestrial terms, you can call it DNA. But it is more than that. It is the level of mental readiness for the next stage.

At this point, the student begins to hear a direction in his/her head, as clear as if someone is talking to him/her directly.

This is the moment when the student has been approached on a telepathic level. The student is instructed to free his/her mind from all thoughts. It is something like what the Japanese call “Koan,” or “Kara,” a state of “mind nothingness.”

IV. Creation of the mental “Conduit”:

Then, something starts to happen; rays of various densities and colors surround the student in a cloud. It is tempting to compare it to the aura in terrestrial terms, but this is not the case. It is not an aura, because it is not bio-organic. It is entirely mental. What happens next, takes only one minute; this is the most important procedure done for each Anunnaki student on the first day of his/her studies – the creation of the mental “Conduit.”

A new identity is created for each Anunnaki student by the development of a new pathway in his or her mind, connecting the student to the rest of the Anunnaki’s psyche.

Simultaneously, the cells check with the “other copy” of the mind and body of the Anunnaki student, to make sure that the “Double” and “Other Copy” of the mind and body of the student are totally clean. During this phase, the Anunnaki student temporarily loses his or her memory, for a very short time.

This is how the telepathic faculty is developed, or enhanced in everyone. It is necessary, to serve the whole community of the Anunnaki. The individual program inside each Anunnaki student is immediately shared with everybody. Incidentally, this is why there is such a big difference between extraterrestrial and human telepathy.

Ulema Rabbi Mordechai said: “On earth, no one ever succeeds in emptying the whole mental content from human cells, like the Anunnaki are so adept at doing, and as such, the Conduit cannot be formed. Lacking the Conduit that is built for each Anunnaki, the human mind is not capable of communication with the extraterrestrials. However, don’t think for a moment that there is any kind of invasion of privacy. “

The simplistic idea of any of your friends tapping into your private thoughts does not exist for the Anunnaki. Their telepathy is rather complicated. The Anunnaki have collective intelligence and individual intelligence.

This is directly connected to two things: the first is the access to the “Community Depot of Knowledge” that any Anunnaki can tap into and update and acquire additional knowledge.

The second is an “Individual Prevention Shield,” also referred to as “Personal Privacy.”

This means that an Anunnaki can switch his direct link to the community on and off, perhaps better defined as his/channel to other Anunnaki.

By establishing the “Screen” or “Filter”, an Anunnaki can block others from either communicating with him or her, or simply preventing others from reading his/her personal thoughts.

"Filter", "Screen" and "Shield" (Plasmic) are interchangeably used to describe the privacy protection.
In addition, an Anunnaki can program telepathy and set it up on chosen channels, exactly as we turn on our radio set and select the station we wish to listen to.
Telepathy has several frequencies, channels and stations. When the establishment of the Conduit is complete, the student leaves the conical cell, and heads toward the section assigned to him/ her at the classroom.

Were dinosaurs created by extraterrestrials?

Question by Matt Hoxtell, Chicago, Illinois, USA.

Question: Were dinosaurs created by extraterrestrials?
Answer:
Not every life-form on Earth was created by the Anunnaki. It is important to remember that when the first expedition of the Anunnaki landed on Earth, our planet was already populated by an amazing variety of living organisms, animals, quasi-human species, the earliest of human-animal forms, synthesized molecules, substances and biological entities. Many of these life-forms were created from cosmic dust.
Some were the result of photosynthesis, and other groups were produced by bacteria and evolution inertia. Worth mentioning here, is that the Anunnaki had no interest or motivation in creating/altering the creation of pre-existing life-forms that were deemed unnecessary or not very essential for starting and/or carrying on their projects on Earth.
The dinosaurs existed on planet Earth, long before the Anunnaki descended to Earth.
The dinosaurs first appeared about 230 million years ago, and their reign lasted over 100 million years. The Anunnaki arrived to Earth circa 449,000 B.C.

Besides, the Anunnaki (any expedition) did not consider the dinosaurs, or remnants of the dinosaurs and similar reptiles, necessary or useful for their plans for two reasons:

- a-They lacked mental/intellectual faculties, necessary for understanding the instructions of the Anunnaki;
- b-Their enormous size.

The lost continent of MU's connection with the Anunnaki

Question by Ismail Kemal Ciftcioglu, Turkey.

Question: This is the most important question for me. In any of the books I read, I haven't come across any information about the lost continent of MU's connection with the Anunnaki.
I assume you know lots of things about it. According to James Churchward's books, MU was even older than Atlantis and home to the human civilization.
Humans migrated from MU all over the world. But we know that the Anunnaki were in Mesopotamia.
So what about it? What can you tell me about the lost continent of MU?

Answer:

I. Introduction/Mythological backgound:

According to legend and esoteric myth, Mu was a large continent of an advanced civilization. It sank beneath the ocean many thousands of years ago.
The story or Myth of Mu appeared for the first time in the 19th century, thanks to the writings of Augustus Le Plongeon (1825-1908), who claimed that the survivors of Mu went to the Americas and established the Mayan Empire.
Then, in the first half of the 20th century, the prolific writer and visionary extraordinaire James Churchward popularized the story of Mu in a series of books he wrote: "The Children of Mu" published in 1931; "The Lost Continent of Mu" published in 1933, and "The Sacred Symbols of Mu", published in 1935.
And in the 1930's, Kamal Atatürk (Baba Kamal) then leader of Turkey, your majestic country, generously funded academic and scientific research on Mu. The great Turkish leader thought that perhaps he would be able to establish a direct link or some sort of connection betweek Turkey and the world's first civilizations that could include the Aztec, and the Maya.
Unfortunately, all attempts to prove the existence of MU failed.

II. Scientific/geological facts:

First of all, you have to remember that the Anunnaki were not only in Mesopotamia.
The first expedition of the Anunnaki to Earth, occurred some 449,000 years ago.
They landed in the Near East (Phoenicia) and explored the territories of Madagascar, Brazil, Central Africa, Turkey (Anatolia) etc., and finally they established their kingdom in Mesopotamia.
The continent of MU was already in existence, long, long before the Mesopotamian civilization.

And Atlantis was the bridge between the remnants of Mu, the pre-historic civilization of Crete, Phoenicia(Modern day Lebanon), Ugarit, Arwad, Egypt, Mesopotamia, the lands of the Hittites in Anatolia, and Cyprus.
Mu was established some 14,000 to 20,000 years ago, and its civilization was destroyed some 9,500 to 10,000 years ago, but MU itself did not "sink" under the ocean, as many have claimed, simply because scientifically speaking, continents do not sink; they might shift, drift, and break into two, three or several parts, but this is a very very long geolocial process that takes hundreds of millions of years.
Except for Pangaea, history, archeology, anthropology and oceanography tell us that continents have maintained their original position.
Thus, for the continent of MU to change its original position as a continent, or to sink to the bottom of the ocean, these events and changes should have occurred at the time Pangaea shifted some 250 millions years ago, or even during the shift of Pannotia, that was formed on Earth some 600 million years ago, or Rodinia (formed some 1.2 billion years ago) which has totally shifted some 750 million years ago.
Yet once again, geography, natural history, oceanography, anthropology, the study of fossils, and the history of comparative civilizations have not provided any proof that a new shift has ever occurred after those dates.
Thus, the idea that an early advanced civilization existed hundreds of millions of years ago on a vanished continent is pure fantasy, ridiculed by science.
In conclusion, the civilization of MU must have existed around 14,000 to 20,000 years ago, and during that period, no continent has ever shifted. Therefore, the sinking of MU to the bottom of the ocean is an impossibility.

III. Anunnaki-Ulema views:

Baalbeck, one of the earliest cities/colonies of the Anunnaki on Earth.

Ulema have suggested that MU and Atlantis were one and the same; a community, instead of a continent.

This makes it more logical to assume that a migration of a community to another part of the world, including Baalbeck, Tyre, Sidon, Turkey, Anatolia, the Near Eas and the Middle East could have occurred.
In addition, this migration could also explain the sudden emergence of an advanced civilization that we know little about.
The early community of Mu or Atlantis or both, since they were considered epistemologically and anthropologically the same, had a highly advanced civilization and well-structured societies, "implanted" by an extraterrestrial race.
And the only extraterrestrial race that left some historical and mythological documents and records on Earth were the Anunnaki. This is the only and most logical link we can attach to the people of MU/Atlantis.

Anunnaki-Ulema Sadek ben Alia Al Bakri stated verbatim: "The Anunnaki had a direct contact with those people, and taught them science, technology, language, and the use of advanced learning techniques and tools.
They went to the Near/Middle East and established their new colonies, always under the supervision of the Anunnaki."
Ulema Sharif Al Takki Al Zubyani (1797-1877) stated that Mu did exist some 50,000 years ago according to the Ulemite calendar (14,000-20,000 years in our calendar).
He added that the original name of Mu was Mari, and it was inhabited by people who were very advanced in "Ilm Al Falak", meaning space science. An enormous explosion happened on the continent, caused by the reflection of light and rays emitted by a gigantic "Miraya", which means mirrors, triggered by a huge volcano eruption.

Coincidentally or strangely enough, the Anunnaki and Ulemite literature referred to the Miraya as a galactic tool used to receive and emit cosmic messages, a sort of beam (Possibly atomic or laser), as well as to record and decode events from the past, the present and the future.
Al Zubyani added: "Those mirrors were also used as weapons, and if they are not handled properly, they could destroy a whole country." Those who know Arabic, including the archaic dialect of the Arab Peninsula, and Ana'kh will find out that there is a very close relation (Perhaps linguistically only) between the Name Mari and the Arabic, pre-Islamic word Mir'aat (Mir'-aat and Miraya) which means in both languages (Ana'kh and Arabic) mirror.
Strangely enough, the French word "Miroir" and the English word mirror are derived directly from the Ana'kh (Anunnaki language) Miraya. So here we have a million year old Anunnaki word "Miraya", a 50,000 year old name "Mari", a 7,000 year old Ulemite word “Mirra-ya”, and a 5,000 year old Arabic word Miraya! Any connection?

Map of Pangaea.

IV. So, what did we learn from all this?

We have learned the following:

- The continent of MU did not sink to the bottom of the ocean, because scientifically, continents do not sink.
- 2- Some sort of ecological or geological catastrophe occurred some 9,500 to 10,000 years ago that forced the population of that part of the world to flee and seek refuge somewhere else, probably in the countries I have mentioned earlier. In fact, science has provided evidence of a cosmic catastrophe around 9,500 B.C., and this explains everything.

Map of Santorini.

- 3- Upon their arrival to new countries, a sudden and new civilization appeared in that part of the world, and that explains the "out of nowhere" origin of human civilization, the birth of language, and the acquired knowledge in so many fields, etc.
- 4- In fact, that society was highly advanced, and most certainly influenced and taught by a super non-human extraterrestrial race. This explains the sudden rise of their civilization, societies, communities and cities, in sharp contrast with other "human societies" which were still living in darkness, ignorance and retarded social conditions.

Map of Crete.

- 5- This advanced society, the originator of human civilization did exist and live on and around the areas and lands nearby Santorini-Crete, and neighboring islands, where a geological catastrophe, and a huge volcano eruption were proven by science.

Where are the Anunnaki now and why don't they interfere in our planet?

Question by Ismail Kemal Ciftcioglu, Turkey.

Question: Where is the Anunnaki race right now, and why don't they interfere in our planet anymore?

Answer:

The Anunnaki now are where they came from; their own planet, called Nibiru "Ne.Be.Ru", also known as Ashtari. The Anunnaki are part of the "Cosmic Federation of the Seven Galaxies".

This is not the so-called federation of lights or cosmic order as claimed by new age ufology.

What is so special about the Anunnaki's federation is the different types of alien civilizations and galactic races that have joined, meaning different bio-organic entities, which are totally different from human-like entities, physically, organically, emotionally and mentally.

"Why don't they interfere in our planet anymore?"

Humans have very little to offer more advanced galactic civilizations. In reality, the human race has nothing meaningful to offer to the Anunnaki. We are limited in our thoughts, despite the variety and divergence of our philosophical views, inventions, art, the music we compose, the poetry we write, and the magnificent figurines and sculptures we create.
On a cosmic level, all these beauties produced by mankind are very minimal.
In the very early days of humanity's history, the Anunnaki were deeply involved in human affairs, and we know this from reading the Akkadian/Sumerian clay tablets, the Babylonian-Mesopotamian literature as preserved in the legendary library (More than 30,000 tablets) of Ashurbanipal in Nineveh, the Phoenician Cosmogeny, the Book of Ramadosh, etc.
However, the Anunnaki lost interest in us, for many reasons, to name a few:
1-The Anunnaki's mission-expedition-exploration on planet "Ki", "Ardi" (Earth) was accomplished hundreds of thousands of years ago.
2-The Anunnaki had to return home to take care of their own business. However, they left offspring on Earth, in areas and regions like Turkey, Phoenicia, Sumer, Guatemala, Peru, Mexico, Persia, and Syria.
Their offspring appeared in history's chronologies as legendary kings and queens, and in some cases, as obscure historical figures like Danel, "Danael", "Dnil", a Phoenician-Ugaritic king who was mentioned in the Ras Shamra Texts.
The Anunnaki's offspring had a hard time dealing with humans, because of their greed, violence, betrayals, wars, and their lack of loyalty. In fact, many of the Anunnaki's remnants on Earth were murdered by humans. If you read ancient history books, you will find out that one civilization wipes out other civilizations by invading their territories, and butchering their leaders, and these atrocious acts continue to the present day.

It is quite ironic, we call the Macedonian leader Alexander "the Great"; when he was a man who killed millions of people (families, women, children, elderly) and destroyed some of the greatest civilizations in history.
Equally ironic and shameful is the fact that we depict the Crusaders as the "Saviors of the Faith", when in reality, they were murderers and butchers.
Upon capturing the city of Jerusalem, the Crusaders slaughtered every Muslim infant, woman and man, and wiped out families and communities. And they did it in the name of Jesus, the Pope and Christianity.
The same thing happened again, when the Christian Catholic Conquistadors decimated the Maya, Inca and Aztec civilizations; and when the so-called "Pioneers of the West" annihilated the Native Americans.
And today, history still repeats itself with religious extremists, and superpowers' materialistic and military expansionism.

The Anunnaki have witnessed all these atrocities.

Even the notorious "Greys" felt threatened by the human race, because of its nuclear arsenal, and what we are constantly doing to Earth's ecological system/environment. Earth is not a positive and healthy environment or habitat for the Anunnaki, and/ any other highly civilized race.
Sure, the human race produced outstanding people like Madame Curie, Mahatma Gandhi, Mother Theresa, Salah Al Dinn Al Ayoubi, Victor Hugo, Marco Polo, Lamartine, Mary-Magdalena, Buddha Siddhartha, Sophocles, and Chopin, but these wonderful people are a drop in the bucket.

To tell you the truth, if you don't find pleasure in the act of giving, and if you don't forgive others, not only once, but as many times as it takes, maybe fifty times or more if necessary, and as long as our success and respectability on Earth are measured by the weight of our wealth, fame and power, none of the highly advanced communities in the cosmos will find the human race, appealing, meaningful and worthy of any attention.
However, the Anunnaki did not abandon us completely.
Thanks to the "Conduit" they have installed in the cells of our brains, they remain in constant touch with us, but only the pure in heart and thoughts will feel it and benefit from it.

Alien scanning of brilliant minds to create a "Super-Baby"!

Question by Akram Jibril, UAE.

Question: I am not sure who has said aliens can scan our brain and create a new species of babies for their hybrid program. Is it true? Can they do that? And how it is done?
Answer:
Ulema Oppenheimer and Ulema Govinda commented on "Mind Scanning" and duplicating-multiplying brains' potentials:
From their Kira'at, verbatim: Scanning your brain and body to create a new copy of "You" for a new-born baby.
They scan you, mind and body, and place the scan in an "Aetra" mold to recreate you and duplicate you; they can make as many copies as they want. On the top of the "Scan Mold", there is a transparent cover "Kha-Tar" that looks like fiberglass.
As soon as the scan process begins, the Khatar starts to work, meaning, it starts to reshape itself into a human form, the physical form of your body in its miniscule details.

So what we have here, is "you" imprinted three dimensionally on a sheet of a fiberglass. This is the "Physical Scan". What is more facinating, is the "Kha-tra-Fikr", which is the "Mental Scan" of your brains, all your thoughts, feelings, beliefs, memories and intentions.
At the end, they either mix the physical scan with the mental scan to recreate a copy of you, or install your brain into another body (Not Yours), or attached your body to the brain of another scanned person.
Now, imagine if they keep on - indefinitely - duplicating and reduplicating these scans, physically and mentally, how many millions of new hybrid people would be created? More than you can count!!
In some instances, at birth, some of them have already implanted scanned brains into the brain/mind of new born babies. The baby is 2 hours old, but his/her memory is 50 years old.
The new born's mind is almost virgin and clean like a dry sponge, but with their genetic manipulation, they can feed this "virgin mind" with the contents of brilliant minds they have scanned for hundreds of years.
So what we have here is a superbaby, an infant who is more intelligent than all the geniuses on Earth, combined!

Is the Ulema-Anunnaki group administered by men or a matriarchal society?

Question by Rita Montiel, Madrid, Spain.

Question: Is the Ulema-Anunnaki group administered by men or a matriarch woman as I have heard?

Answer:

No, the Ulema are not exclusively all men. In fact, the head of one Ma'had (Center/Institute) is Umdasturia; a magnificent woman. And her name is quite interesting and revealing.
Those who know Turkish, Arabic, Farsi, and some ancient Middle Eastern languages will be able to know what her name means. Well, Um means mother, and Dasturia means the law, or the constitution of the Ulema's assembly.
By the way, the assembly is called Majlas. In the eye of Baal Shamroot and Ameliku (the great supreme Sinhars of the Anunnaki), even though men and women are equal, women remain far more superior to men.
Women are the first and exclusive source of Man's life and existence in the known universe. Women are the first cell and the first molecule of the life of all men.
The earliest Akkadian-Babylonian- Sumerian tablets tell us that the early women on Earth, the offspring of the Anunnaki and Igigi did not need men's sperm to fertilize their eggs and give birth to babies.

Women-goddesses were self-reproductive, and could give birth to babies without having intercourse with a man. But they lost this capability, by constantly interbreeding with Earth's men and continuously engaging in sexual acts with Earth's "creatures".
According to the Akkadian-Sumerian tablets, at the beginning of time, the second most powerful person in the universe was a woman goddess - creator of the universe, and of men.
She was called Tiamat.
But Tiamat was dethroned and killed by a male god known as Marduk. The male scribes and the kings needed to restore the "Authority of Man" over everything, thus they created the myth of Marduk and justified the reason for his killing Tiamat.

Marduk fighting the dragon Tiamat.

Marduk fighting the dragon Tiamat, and putting an end to her major influence on the affairs of the universe, the state and Man.
By doing so, Marduk became the absolute and most powerful god of the Anunnaki, the Igigi, and Babylon.

Marduk chasing and fighting Tiamat.

Eventually, Marduk will slaughter Tiamat, and from parts of her body, Marduk will create the universe, according to the Akkadian-Babylonian tablets.

The relationship between our mind, body and cellular memory

Question by Tony Rossi, Bocan Raton, Florida.

Question: What is the relationship between our mind, body and cellular memory created by the extraterrestrial Anunnaki?

Answer:

"Do you think you are seeing yourself as a physical reality when you in a mirror? Think again.

Some highly evolved people extend to the outside perimeter of their physical body…" said Ulema Li.

Ulema ben Yacob stated: "You too, can do this…you can transcend the physical boundaries of your body. There are two presences/substances that made you what and who you are:

- a-You as a person;
- b-You as a human being.

The human being is the physical form of yourself.

The "Person" is what constitutes everything about yourself.

There are lots of things (Matter and Mind) about you that are somewhere you are not aware of. Part of you exists in a tree, in a river, in a thought, in a memory cell, in a beautiful song, in a dream, in another country, and way beyond; in dimensions that most recently were elaborated on, by quantum physics' leading thinkers and pioneers.

You have to find out everything that is part of you, in order to reach extraordinary standards of intelligence, and unmatched success at multiple levels.

Part of your "Extraordinary Intelligence" rotates around cellular memory.

Do you know where your cellular memory is?

Is it in your physical body, or in your psyche?

Is it in you "The Person", or in you the "Human Entity"? And why is cellular memory so important to be concerned about?

It is important, because that memory is everything you have experienced and learned from, as well as the stimulus and conditioner of your judgment, analysis and the understanding of the world you live in.

But it is not perfect because it is not complete.

You have to tap into both segments of yourself, the physical body that takes you from your home to your office, and the "Person" that transports you from a limited physical sphere of knowledge to the ultimate and highest zone of awareness, that is so close to you, close to your physical body.

There, you will find the ultimate truth about yourself, how much information and knowledge you have stored within you before you were born, after you were born, and what you are going to be once you are no longer here.
You are too important to be confined in 150 pounds, 190 pounds, 200 pounds, 5 feet, or 6 feet 11. You are much bigger and denser than you think. So tap into the missing part of yourself. It is so enjoyable, so remunerating, so profitable, and so powerful.
Visit yourself in other dimensions, rediscover the zone you that are not fully aware of exists. It belongs to you, and to you alone.
Once there, you will reinforce your physical and mental powers and energies.
The denser the body of your other person is, the healthier you become.
That other person you may call whatever you want: a guardian, an angel, an etheric presence, your double. All are the very same thing. People who have succeeded in blending with the other part of themselves that extends beyond and outside their physical mass of muscles, feet, hands and lungs, have accomplished extraordinary things. You too can do it. It just requires a certain degree of belief, practice and determination.
Where is this other part of me, you might ask?
It is so close to your physical body, and wherever you go, it goes with you, it does not follow you, but accompany you.
You have to make a deal with it.
You have to reach some sort of agreement with it; an agreement to chat together, to meet somewhere, and go from there.
If you don't converse with your own mind, you will never work out/exercise the mental muscles in your brain, and if you do not increase the size and strength of your mental muscles, your intellect will shrink.
Note: In the Ulema Anunnaki Forbidden "Book of Ramadosh", I have provided some techniques that could enable you to do so, and reach your other "Etheric Zone". Please refer to the book.

Extraterrestrial Anunnaki-Phoenician Chavad nitrin and the immortality of the gods Question by Georges Haddad, Michigan.

Roman pillars leading up to the temple of Balaat Gebal, in Byblos, Phoenicia, where the Chavad-nitrin was used by the priests of Baal.

Question: I am originally from Byblos (Jbeil) in Lebanon, and we Lebanese are descendants of the Crusaders who learned some of the secrets of the Anunnaki in Lebanon and Jerusalem. I have heard that my ancestors the Phoenicians have used a product similar to athletes' steroids.
This product I was told was also used by the Egyptian Pharaohs. Could you please tell me more about it? Many thanks.

Ruins of the ancient city of Ugarit.

Answer:
Correct, that product was called "Chavad-nitrin", after an ancient Phoenician embalming process, learned from Byblos and Arwad Anunnaki remnants, using Mah'rit (Maha-reet), a secret substance considered to be humanity's first formula for steroids, mixed with barks from the cedars of Phoenicia.

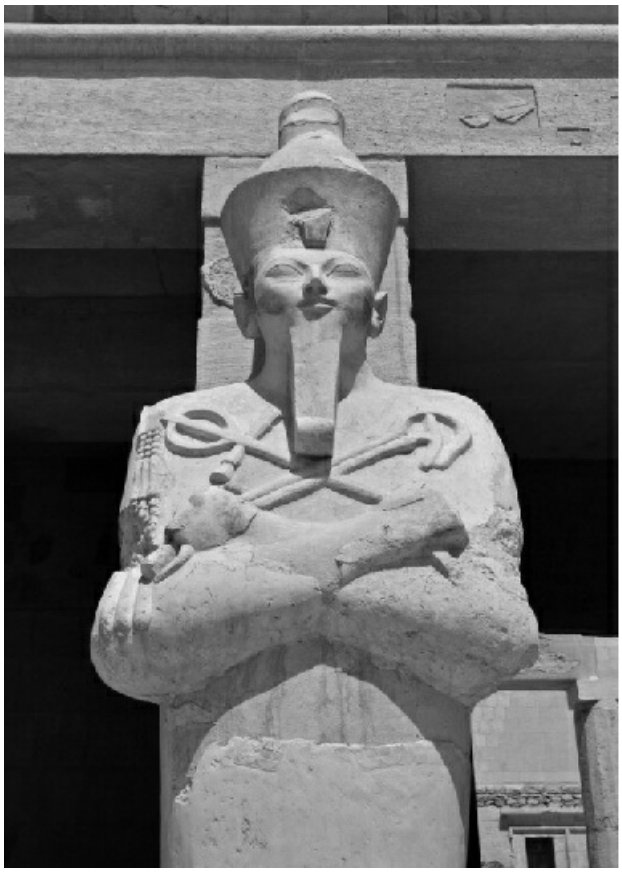
It was frequently used by athletes in Ugarit, Amrit, and Arwad.
From Chavad-nitrin, derived the Greek word Natron or Natrin, a substance used in the embalming process.



God Osiris.

Because of the reported physical endurance and legendary longevity it produced, the Egyptians equated the words Neter, Netjer and Netjet with the immortality of the gods.
According to Egyptian tradition, the first human being to be mummified was the god Osiris, whose body floated down the Nile in a wooden casket, and washed ashore at Byblos (Your hometown) in Phoenicia.
For this reason, Byblos was a sacred region to Osiris, to his cult, and to the Egyptians. This explains the reason why the Egyptians have called Byblos the land of the god Osiris; Ta Netjer.

Hidden entrances to other worlds and dimensions, right here on Earth

Question by Isabelle Franchot, and Emile Farkas, Beverly Hills, California.

Question: Do UFOs and extraterrestrials use galactic entrances and space-time corridors to enter and exit our world? And how many are there? Are they visible to the naked eye?

Answer:

There are several unseen, hidden, and undetectable entrances to three different dimensions beyond ours:

a- Entrance(s) to the after-life (After death);
b- Entrances to the fourth dimension;
c- Entrance(s) to the parallel dimension (Ba'ab)

Each dimension (Zone) is a totally different world in structure, substance, composition, and boundaries. Some are extremely close to us. Closer than you might think.
I will explain:

a-Entrance to the after-life:

This is called life after death. And it is exactly what you might think. The realm of deceased people. Only dead people enter this zone, and they never return.
The Babylonians called it "The Land of no Return".
It was mentioned in their epics. In some passages, it was called Kur in Akkadian. On their way into that dimension, deceased people encounter all sorts of entities, benevolent and malevolent. This is not my personal theory. I did not invent such a story. This was mentioned thousands of years ago in the Egyptian Book of the Dead, in the Tibetan "Bardo Todol", and many other texts from various ancient cultures.

b-Entrance to the fourth dimension:

This is a zone that a person can enter in two manners, mentally and physically.
This zone could have entrances everywhere; in your bedroom, in a valley, in a building corridor, absolutely everywhere and anywhere. And this includes the oceans, the bottom of the sea, in thin air, and right inside your home doors. Many people have been sucked-up, absorbed by its "Pulling Force" (Magnetic field) in a split second. Once they are attracted or pulled in by these entrances, they zoom inside the entrance at incredible speed.
For incomprehensible reasons, these entrances could open up and close at anytime, any moment. And as soon as a person or an object is swallowed up by the current (Flux-Influx) of those entrances, the entrance closes its opening (Overture) on itself.
Those kinds of entrances are situated everywhere in our world. There is vast literature on people, vehicles, animals who have vanished into thin air, in a split second.

Highly advanced alien races know exactly where the locations of these entrances are, as well as their currents and times of opening and closing. They have used these entrances as corridors and passages for millions of years.
Many of their spaceships have navigated through these channels. Some Ulema have explained the passages of these entrances as a net of time and space bending on itself, and thus reducing distances and time between points and destinations. Sometimes, UFOs sharp angular turns and zigzag pattern indicate where these entrances are located in the skies.
This is why Ulema have said that UFOS do not fly, they jump. Meaning, they jump from one pocket to another.
In other words, these pockets are nothing more than entrances to a higher dimension; the fourth dimension.
I am absolutely sure that several scientists working on classified outer-space programs (sponsored by some governments) have already worked on projects related to fourth dimensional entrances. Some might have succeeded. And I will rest my case here, and keep my mouth shut!
It was reported in close circles, that a couple living somewhere in the United States had a nightmarish experience, when the nanny of their two lovely children vanished into thin air, in a fraction of a second in their kitchen, while opening a can of concentrated milk; never to be found again.
The military police were called in to investigate. Two days later, the "case was closed" and the couple were order to evacuate their home. You have every right to doubt my words.
To an alert mind, these sorts of stories are science fiction. From the bottom of my heart, I do not wish to see you in a similar situation, because this could happen to all of us.
A highly regarded scientist told me once that the disappearance of the nanny was never considered a "closed case".
He said that a few hours after this tragic and frightening experience happened, one parapsychologist and one quantum physics expert were taken to the couple's home to conduct further investigations.
They searched the whole house, and after three laborious hours, found the entrance to the fourth dimension, located on the right side of the kitchen sink. They sealed the kitchen area, and encircled the entrance "Door" of the threatening dimension with colored fiberglass sheets. From these types of openings, entities, substances, other life-forms, gravity and reverse-gravity can also leak into our world from that fourth dimension.

3-Entrance to the parallel dimension:
I will not elaborate on this dimension, because I have written on this subject ad infinitum in many of my previous books. But worth mentioning here, is that parallel dimensions are not the product of fantasy or science fiction.
Some of the world's most admired scientists and professors teaching quantum physics have already explained what a parallel dimension is, and/ or how multiple dimensions work.
According to their most recent findings and theories, there are 11 known parallel dimensions in the universe.

Paranormal mirrors and extraterrestrials: Mirrors that remember their previous owners.

Question by Fabio T., Rome, Italy

Question: I read a small article on a mysterious antique mirror that caused the death of an owner, because as it was explained in the articles, the mirrors had a vengeful memory against its owner. There are people who believe that the mirrors had an extraterrestrial origin and were contaminated by aliens.
Logically, they said the contamination killed people.
What is your personal opinion?
Answer:
Coincidentally, I wrote an entry on your question in my last book. Apparently you did not read it. I will avoid asking you to refer to the book, fearing that some might think I am using this new book to sell a previous one. So, I am going to repeat here and briefly, some of the most important points.

I. Introduction:
This is one of the most striking and mind-twisting stories in the annals of the black arts, extraterrestrial studies, parapsychology, and alien phenomena.
It is part parapsychological, biological, and part alien.
The subject was discussed by members of prestigious French academies of science, noted historians, and most recently, a learned group of Anunnaki-Ulema.

II. The story:
This bizarre event took place in France in 1997, and it was described by Del senso delle cose, so it is not my fabrication (As noted by Del senso delle cose):
Antique dealers addressed journalists with a request to warn the collectors of antiques not to buy the mirror, which had the inscription Louis Arpo 1743 on the frame. They said that the mirror had killed almost 38 people during the long history of its existence.

Antique dealers decided to address the media, as the mirror had disappeared. It was found missing when a penal code law professor asked to take photographs of the mirror, to show them at his lectures. “The mirror was kept at a police station after it had killed two people in 1910. However, someone penetrated their storage facilities and stole several things, including the mirror.
We think that the thief will try sell it, that is why we are trying to provide as much information as possible about the mirror to warn potential customers of the danger,” a spokesman for the French association of antique collectors said.
The mentioned mirror provoked a cerebral hemorrhage for the people that were looking into it. Some people believed that the mirror was reflecting rays of light in a specific way, whereas other believed that it happened because of the mirror’s negative energy that it had stored for hundreds of years.
There were some people, who thought that the mirror was a window another world. There is no common opinion about the antique mirror, but people still try to explain the reason for the mysterious deaths that it had caused.

III. Tommaso Campanella’s explanation:
A mirror is like a magnet, thus it is capable of attracting poisonous evaporations and accumulate them on its surface. Italian philosopher Tommaso Campanella (1568-1639) had a rather scary theory about this.
He stated: “Old women, who do not have warm blood in their veins, who have horrible smell coming out of their mouth and eyes, find that their mirrors become blurred, because moisture drops of their heavy breath stick to the clear cold glass. If their saliva drops on fabric, the fabric decays.
If a child sleeps with an old woman, its days will become shorter and her days will become longer, and the child will die.”

IV. Paris Academy of Science:
French scientists discussed the same question a hundred years later. A document of the Paris Academy of Science, dated 1739, stated: “When an old woman approaches a clear mirror and spends a lot of time in front of it, a mirror absorbs a lot of her bad juices. The chemical analysis showed the juices to be very poisonous.”

V. Extraterrestrial influence:
An Anunnaki-Ulema stated that “everything in the universe has memory, including matter. Thus we have spatial memory, metal memory (memory metal), time memory, emotional memory, parallel memory, multidimensional memory, and so on. All objects retain a depot of events and vibes that have occurred around them.

Some of the depot's contents is of a positive nature, while other parts of the contents are of a negative nature. If an object is of extraterrestrial origin, it could radiate vibes that fatally affect the mind.
Health will deteriorate, and death becomes imminent." A type of mirror reported in Anunnaki-Ulema literature is called the Miraya, a very sophisticated tool allegedly used by the Anunnaki to monitor time and space, and the activities of other extraterrestrial races.
The Miraya can be deadly if used by humans.
Another type of mirror is called a Mnaizar (small Minzar), a sort of table-magnifier made out of plasma-energy, that Ulema-Anunnaki use to track events and produce supernatural phenomena such as teleportation, and metals' transmutation.
The Mnaizar is a highly sophisticated instrument originally developed by the Anunnaki while they inhabited Earth.
The Ulema have several copies of these mirrors.
Ulema W. Li stated that it is very possible that the French mirror is some sort of version of the Mnaizar. It retains memory, and even projects a holographic calendar of future events. Humans who gaze at this sort of mirror will expose themselves to great danger. The Mnaizar emits undetected fatal radiation."

Anunnaki type of civilization

Questions by Reverend Nancy Santos.

Question: What type of civilization are the Anunnaki at this moment in time? A Type One, Two, Three, or other civilization?
According to Professor Michio Kaku, a theoretical physicist from New York University, a Type One is a civilization is one that gets there energy from all planets. Type Two Civilization is a (Stellar) getting energy from their, Mother Sun only!
Type Three Civilization gets their Energy from all the suns in our universe and the next.
Answer:
You don't need to classify the Anunnaki in any category. On Earth, we love to classify people, categorize subjects, create lists; list of the year's best in this or that, list of the worst in this and that, the list of the best dressed stars, the list of the worst dressed stars, David Letterman's list of 10, and so on. This is how human minds work: Classification, rating, grades, etc.
In the immensity of the universe, the galactic mind works differently, and we will talk one day about the "Galactic Mind", the "Universal Mind", the "Supersymetric Mind", etc.

It is necessary sometimes to classify a subject, a topic, a product, or even – in this case, as you have asked– a type of civilization, in order to understand what level of accomplishment such and such a civilization has reached.
This is necessary, especially when a civilization is new, and/or when a civilization is going through multiple phases/stages of development. This does not apply to the Anunnaki and other highly developed galactic civilizations, simply because the human mind cannot fully understand the extremely high and extraordinary standards and levels of technology and science of civilizations which are millions, perhaps billions of years ahead of us. The classification given by Dr. Kaku is wonderful, and appeals to many of us. Our mind can understand it, or at least cope with it.
In the cosmos, galactic civilizations evolve differently, and have nothing to do with "Getting energy from their, Mother Sun", or getting "energy from all planets." In our Solar system, we have one sun. In other galactic systems, some planets have more than one sun, and more than one moon. So we cannot, and should not define and classify alien civilizations, by why and how they get their energies; from the sun or other sources.
However, and according to Ulema Bader El-din, Berkov, and Oppenheimer, the Anunnaki civilization has reached its ultimate level some 30 million years ago.
It is difficult to define "Ultimate level", because we do not understand all the advancement levels of alien communities.
We do not know who they are. Where they are?
How many are they in the universe?

Anunnaki maturity, emotional control, jealousy, sin?

Question by Reverend Nancy Santos.

Question: Have the extraterrestrial Anunnaki matured away from their immaturity in emotional control, past stories of jealousy, power, etc., sin?
Answer:
On what base (s) or ground, have you created this opinion of yours? How did you know about Anunnaki's maturity or immaturity? Jealousy, sin, etc.?
The only and very few authentic and authoritative references (Historical, chronological, linguistic, religious, epistemological, etymological, artistic, archeological, anthropological, and of course cosmological) on the Anunnaki are found in:

- 1-The Akkadian clay tablets texts:

The Akkadian clay tablets texts, (Nineveh Library of Ashur-ba-Nipal) which millions of readers in the West cannot read. And almost 99% of those who read about ufology and related topics have based their opinions about the Anunnaki (and also other aliens as well), on personal interpretations of very crafty authors with fabulous and phantasmagorical theories that defy logic and common sense.

Unless you know Akkadian, Old Babylonian, Ugaritic, Hittite, Assyrian, and Phoenician languages, you cannot form any opinion on the Anunnaki. However, you can shape a pretty clear idea about the Anunnaki, by reading the works and translations of the early Assyriologists and eminent linguists, who deciphered and translated the Akkadian cuneiform tablets in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

Unfortunately, very few readers in the West are interested in these literary and academic publications, because they are not fun – or so they think! They would rather prefer to read paperback books, and stories by contemporary authors who have managed to somehow mesmerize the public with fabulous stories and extraordinary interpretations, which is why their books have become bestsellers, whilst the serious and well-researched books on the history and civilization of Mesopotamia, Babylon, Sumer, Assyria, Chaldea, Akkad, Ugarit, and Anunnaki are largely ignored and forgotten under a heavy layer of dust in college libraries, and in the archives of rarely visited museums.

But I have some good news for you.

In many works by archeologists, historians, linguists and museum curators (From the early 1810 to the mid 20th century), you can find translations of Akkadian and Old Babylonian texts, referring to how and why the Sumerians depicted the Anunnaki as they did. Please read the serious books written by acclaimed scholars, and not the third rate novels, commercial essays, paperbacks, and idiotic blogs on the Internet!!

In those translations by academicians and noted historians, you will find plenty of stories about the emotions, feelings, and the way of life of the Anunnaki, as depicted by Babylonian scribes and writers in the Akkadian language, and proto-Babylonian. These stories encompass all sorts of dramas and soap operas, like gods raping women, Anunnaki Sinhars (Leaders) fighting each other, an Anunnaki god who planned the destruction of the human race; Anunnaki goddesses with extreme anger and legendary jealousy, so on. But bear in mind, those Anunnaki stories came from the mouth of fabulous story-tellers in Sumer. And this was intentional on their part.

They wanted to portray the Anunnaki as divine-human, so at least they could share some common and similar traits with them. The Greeks did the very same thing.

Some of their deities were jealous, ferocious, malicious and yes, some were rapists and sexual predators!!

Something else you should remember:

The Anunnaki who descended to Earth (Sumer, Phoenicia, and Turkey) are quite different from the Anunnaki who were, and still are on Ashtari (Nibiru to others).
Earth's Anunnaki had to look in some way, somehow not very much different from humans, otherwise the Babylonians would have not tried to identify and associate their legendary kings with the Anunnaki kings.

- 2-The Bible:

The Old Testament offered contradicting, convergent and divergent portrayals of the Anunnaki, usually referred to as Rephaim, Anakim, Nephilim, B'nai Elohim, so on.
Don't count on these Biblical accounts.
The early Hebrew scribes borrowed their major Biblical stories from the myths and religions of Babylon, Ugarit, Amrit and Phoenicia. As a matter of fact, Yahweh was Baal-El, the Ugaritic-Phoenician god. And almost all the powerful traits and virtues of Enki and Ea were transferred to the attributes of Jehovah (Yahweh, the god of the Israelites), even Daniel was copied from the Phoenician myth of Danel (Ugarit).
This is a fact.
You can read several translations of this myth as well as numerous Ugaritic texts referring to the early prototypes and characteristics of Yahweh found in the depiction of the Ugaritic deities. Having said that, bear in mind that the Biblical depiction of the Anunnaki in various forms and names is not accurate. In fact, they are hostile, and there are reasons for doing so.
Firstly, Abraham and Moses desperately wanted to establish an identity for their people.
In ancient times, a nation was usually associated with its deities. If their god was strong and all mighty, then they become a powerful and rightful nation.
If, however, you have a bad and a weak god, you end up with a bad and a weak nation. Secondly, the early Israelites feared the expansion of the Phoenician cults. They were a direct threat to Yahweh, their own god.
The Israelite prophets waged hysterical wars against the gods of Tyre, Sidon, Byblos, Arwad, Ugarit and Amrit.
Consequently, they had to assassinate the character of all other gods, and portray Yahweh as the only, the mightiest and most righteous god of all. Therefore, what you have read in the Bible about the sin, the anger, the jealousy, the vices of the Anunnaki, were written by scribes who had to defend their own interests, authority, the pride of their nation, their raison d'etre, and the status/importance/legitimacy of their god, and above all, to justify the reasons for conquering the lands of their neighbors, and building their new cities on territories taken away from their legitimate owners.
Yes, the Bible is the most colorful propaganda literature in the world."

3- Phoenician and Anatolian texts and archeological finds:
You can learn a lot about the Anunnaki from studying slabs, texts, obelisks and cylinder seals found in Turkey, Arwad, Malta, Cyprus, Ugarit, Amrit, Phoenicia, Armenia (Urartu, Cilicia), Byblos, Batroun, Sidon, Afkah, Amchit and Tyre in Lebanon (Ancient Phoenicia). In addition, there are several myths and poems in Phoenician and Ugaritic that tell us about the traits and characteristics of the Anunnaki.
Worth mentioning here is that none of these archeological finds indicate what you have stated: "Anunnaki immaturity, jealousy, control, etc." On the contrary, the Anatolian and Phoenician texts and slabs offered us a different picture of the Anunnaki, in sharp contrast to the Hebrew depiction of the Anunnaki.
Before passing judgment on the Anunnaki, we should first refer to historical sources, and above all to original texts written in Akkadian/Sumerian, Babylonian and Phoenician.
What you read on the Internet (Usually written by ignorant red necks, self-proclaimed channelers and psychics, and people totally unfamiliar with Middle Eastern and Near Eastern languages) is pure fabrication.
Stick to the historical and linguistic facts!

Anunnaki management skills

Question by Reverend Nancy Santos.

Question: Have they learned to manage their emotions and improve their management skills?
Answer:
What kind of management skills are you talking about?
Do you think Anunnaki have or need to have IBM, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Video Professor, E-Harmony, and E-bay on Nibiru, to properly improve corporation and management skills?

- The Anunnaki created the human race.
- The Anunnaki conquered the frontiers of time and space.
- The Anunnaki penetrated the depth and infinity of the universe.
- The Anunnaki's longevity exceeds 450,000 years.
- The Anunnaki conquered the fastest speed in the known cosmos, faster than the speed of light.

Well, Nancy, all of the above require lots of management skills.
They already have great management skills.
Oh yes! They got it millions of years ago!!

The Anunnaki's God: A critical God?

Question by Reverend Nancy Santos.

Question: Are the Anunnaki a Critical God?
No forgiveness, and no exceptions as in an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth?
Answer:
The Anunnaki do not have a God.
The God we know (Judeo-Christian-Muslim God) was invented by an Iraqi man called Abraham (Real name Av-Ram, and he was born in Ur in Mesopotamia, modern day Iraq.) And this God called Yahweh or Jehovah by the Hebrews was in fact a replica of the Anunnaki Ea-Enki lords, and later on embellished with a divine caricature borrowed from the Ugaritic-Phoenician pagan god Baal, El.
The concept of God, or one God was reinforced by Moses; a god he met in the bushes! Quite a rendez-vous!
The same God he had a chat with on Mount Sinai, where he received the 10 Commandments! The truth I tell you, Yahweh was modeled after the Anunnaki lords who descended on Iraq, and the Phoenician Baal (Ba'al Hadadd) of Tyre and Ugarit.
Besides, Moses did not need to go all the way up to the top of the mountain to get his Commandments.
They were already available to him in Egypt, while he served as a chief advisor and a military commander to the Pharaoh.
The 10 Commandments were in fact 613 Commandments. Almost 80% of these Hebraic Commandments were taken from the Egyptian scriptures and the Egyptian Book of the Dead!!
Some 50 years ago, German and French archeologists found the Famous "Byblos Building Inscriptions" which specifically contained the name of Yahweh as Yaw, and Ya-weh (Phoenician pronunciation) centuries before Moses announced to his people the name of their Hebrew God.
God was created by Man.
However, the Anunnaki have A Maha-Sinhar, also called Gala-Amroot, and Baalshamrout, which means a great lord. He/she is in charge. He is both female and male, the creator/creatrice of all intelligent life-forms on Earth.
On Nibiru and in the galactic infinity, the Maha-Sinhar is a merciful lord. Her/his wisdom is based upon a complete understanding of Donia (The world; the universe). Her/his truth is founded in science; a positive and "friendly" science.

"No exceptions as in an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth?" as you have stated, is an alarming truth, because it is part of early Man's literature.
Yes, Nancy, you are right this time, if you associate this phrase with the God we have learned about from the Israelites.
Some of the Anunnaki so-called gods who descended to Earth (Sumer/Assyria) displayed anger, vengeance et al, as depicted by scribes on planet Earth. This primordial depiction gave birth to the character, persona and traits of the Hebrew God who become the God of the Christians and the Muslims.
But…but NOT to the early Gnostic Christians (The Real and first Christians), for they understood that the Judaic God was a vicious, vengeful and aggressive villain-god!
The Anunnaki's God on Earth was a "Critical God" as you have correctly stated.
The Anunnaki so-called God on Nibiru is just the opposite!
This is not a personal attack on Judaism and Christianity and/or Islam. My favorite mentors/teachers were Mordachai ben Zvi and N. ben Yacob. I was raised as a Roman-Catholic and as a Jew. And I have served the Vatican and the Jewish community and media in several roles and capacities.
As to my affiliation with Islam, (I am not a Muslim) I have studied the Koran and Arabic literature for more than 55 years, and I have taught Islamic literature and language for decades, in addition to which I have studied the Sharia, the Fukh, and Islamic laws and procedures for a very long time, and appeared before Islamic courts as an attorney at law; a tradition I became very fond of!

Benevolent and malevolent Anunnaki gods

Question by Reverend Nancy Santos.

Question: Is there a benevolent and a malevolent faction of Anunnaki Gods?
Answer:
Not in their homeland, and not on their planet!
On Earth, yes!
And on Earth in ancient times, not today.
Ancient stories and inscriptions on clay tablets found in Iraq revealed a great deal of violence, aggression, and malevolence of the Anunnaki gods.

- a-The Epic of Gilgamesh,
- b-the Descent of Ishtar to Kurnugi (Hell),
- c-The Enuma Elish,
- d-The exploits of Marduk,
- e-The Akkadian epic of creation,

On the Anunnaki's creation of early humans and Earth original species

Question by A. Marquise, New York, New York.

Question: Were the quasi-humans (lifforms) the Anunnaki encountered (when they first came to earth) a natural product of evolution, or genetically manipulated by the Igigi / prior ET?

Answer:

Anunnaki-Ulema records show that Earth was inhabited by 47 different kinds of human species.

The book "Ilmu Al Donia" (Knowledge of the Universe or the World) indicates 36 intelligent life-forms, as ten were considered animal-human/bestial humans. Many species existed on Earth, long before the Anunnaki landed on Earth.

Some were the result of:

- a-Photo-synthesis;
- b-Metabolism;
- c-Molecular metamorphosis;
- d-Cosmic dust;
- e-Ma'iya, meaning verbatim "Aquatic fertilization". In other words, a blend of photo-synthesis and maritime bacteria;
- f-Etc, etc

So, when the Anunnaki, the Igigi, the Lyrans and other extraterrestrial races landed on Earth, this planet already had a large variety of quasi-human forms.

Some of these quasi-human life-forms were captured by the Anunnaki while exploring Central Africa, Brazil, Madagascar and other regions of the planet.

They conducted several genetic operations on these life-forms, but their experiments failed miserably. Simply put, they gave up. Then, they decided to use the genes or DNA of one of the Igigi gods (Egeshu) and mixed the extract with elements from the Earth, such as Tourba, Tourab (Dirt, Clay, etc.)

This was written in the Akkadian clay tablets, known to Western readers as the Sumerian tablets. What is not totally known to many is the fact, that the Igigi also attempted to create humans, and of course they failed, because they are not geneticists like the Anunnaki. They were expert mineralogists, topographers and agriculture and irrigation experts.

Question: Have we ever found skeletons and bones of them and what do we call them? (Australopithecus, Afarensis, Homo habilis, Erectus, Cro-magnon?)

Question by A. Marquise, New York, New York.

Answer:
All of the above, of course, not taking into consideration a proper chronology. What you have listed here are certainly scientific and anthropological terms.
In Anunnaki Ulemite literature, they are called differently.
Names like:

- 1-Baha'em
- 2-Adamath
- 3-Adamu
- 4-Zakkar
- 5-Jens
- 6-Behemoth
- 7-So on. The list is endless.

All human beings do not come from the same origin

Questions by A. Marquise, New York, New York.

Question: Have the Anunnaki created/genetically upgraded species on other planets?
If so, what has been the outcome?
Answer:
No, the Anunnaki did not create or upgrade species on other planets.

Question: Page 138 of book one of the three books of Ramadosh mentions that though we are all human beings, we do not come from the same origin. Some were born here on planet Earth, others were born somewhere else, in some other dimensions and far different spheres. Can you please explain in further detail what do you mean by that, and by us being created according to different specifications?

Answer:
I. Introduction:
The Earth was populated with 47 different quasi-human life-forms, but other scholars have stated that 36 different intelligent life-forms inhabited the Earth.
There is a big difference between quasi-humans and intelligent life-forms. And this distinction explains the difference in the origin of the human race(s), and the creation of Man according to different specifications.

I will try to explain, but it is quite complicated.
There are numerous tales about the creation of Man, emanating from various cultures, civilizations and periods. The Bible told us, that Man was created by God. Almost all religions claimed a divine source for the creation of Man on Earth. However, the Gnostics believe that Man, Earth and the Universe we know were created by an "Evil God", and there is nothing divine or holy in his attributes.
The leading concept is that "god" or "the gods" used clay from Earth to fashion Man.
Of course, the methods and processes of creation are not similar, but the material used in the creation process is almost the same. This is of course, related exclusively to humans who were created on Earth; more precisely on dry land. It does also apply to humans who were created elsewhere, or life-forms which were created from other substances, and we will talk about this. Later on, we will briefly approach different concepts and methods of creation throughout the ages, and the phases of development of human civilizations. But before we do that, let's bring out the concept of creating man from clay on Earth, because it is almost universal.

II. First category of humans:
Man (Humans) created on Earth from clay.
Before we begin, please allow me to add this note on the Assyrian word Dadmi, and the Arabic word Adam, and the Ana'kh/Ulemite words Chaii, and Chaiturabi because they are essential.
Chaii means human life. In the Book of Rama-Dosh, the scribes put strong emphasis on the expression "human being life", to bring to the attention of the adept, the origin of life and mankind on Earth, vis-à-vis other living "super" beings in the cosmos.
The Ana'kh word Chaii appeared in various passages of the book, but the most important instance is when the word appeared as "Chaiturabi", thus shedding light on the creation of man from clay. From the Ana'kh Chaii, the Hebrew word Chay or Chai (Pronounced like Jose in Spanish) was derived, which means life.
Chaiturabi means lively clay. It is composed of two words:

- a-Chai (Life);
- b-Turabi (Dirt; dust; earth; soil; clay.)

From Turabi, derived the ancient Arabic word Turab, which means exactly the same thing.
From the Ana'kh Chai, as you already know, came the Hebrew word Chay or Chai which means life. In the first edition of the Aramaic/Arabic Bible, we found this sentence: "Anta min al turab, wa ila turan ta'hoodou." Translated verbatim: "You are (anta) from (min) dirt (turab), and (wa) to (ila) dirt (turab) you shall return

The general meaning of Chaiturabi is the genetic creation of the Adama species (First humans; primitive beings; human prototypes…) by the Anunnaki, and in-vitro fertilization by Ninti, Enki, and other goddesses in a laboratory called a "Chimiti". This creation was mentioned in Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian texts.
The idea or concept of the creation of mankind from clay is universal, and appeared in many mythologies, cosmogenies, and religions such as that of the Ugaritic, Phoenician, Babylonian, Chaldean, Mesopotamian, Assyrian, Sumerian, Ana'kh, Ulemite, Greek, African, Aztec, Mongolian, Egyptian, Islamic, and Christian religions.
Dadmim "Admi", "Adamai", "Adami": Ana'kh-Ulemite words which mean the human race; people on Earth; mankind.
In Arabic, it is Adami, which means man.
From Dadmin and Admi, derived the Assyrian Dadmi, which means mankind and people.
From Adami, came the name Adam.

III. Second category of humans:
Akama-ra:
According to the Ulema, the Akama-ra were the first beings who were allowed by the Anunnaki (Enki and Inanna) to date the "Women of Light", who were quarantined on earth in what is today the Arab Peninsular and Bahrain.
The meaning of "Bahrain": In Arabic, Baha means one sea, and Bahrain means two seas. The Akama-ra were genetically created by the Anunnaki on their home planet of Ashtari (Nibiru to others), and were transported to planet Earth on Anunnaki's spaceships, called Merkabahs.

IV. An'th-Khalka:
Creation of the first humans, and different categories of human beings:
Composed of two words:

- a- An'th, which means race; people.
- b- Khalka, which means creation; birth.

From An'th, is derived the Arabic word Ounth, which means people, humans, human race. And from Khalka, is derived the Arabic word Khalika, which means creation of the human beings.
Mankind was not created by one single Sumerian god.
More than one Anunnaki participated in the creation of mankind.
And contrary to common belief, the Anunnaki were not the first extraterrestrials and gods to create a human from clay.
Many other deities from different pantheons also created man from clay. For instance, Khnum “Kneph” (Meaning: To build, to unify in Egyptian) was one of the oldest Egyptian gods who created mankind from clay on a potter's wheel. Khnum became a variation of Ptah. The Anunnaki first landed in Phoenicia, where they established their first colonies, and short thereafter, they created their most elaborate medical center on the Island of Arwad, then a Phoenician territory.

However, the Anunnaki ameliorated their genetic creations, and upgraded early human forms and primitive humans in their laboratories in Sumer.
The Sumerian texts, and their translations in western languages, gave more exposure to the Anunnaki of Sumer than to the other and equally powerful Anunnaki of Phoenicia and Central Africa.
The Sumerian texts include various versions of the creation of mankind by a multitude of Anunnaki gods and goddesses. Some passages in the Sumerian texts refer to different creators, as well as to multiple genetic experiments.

There is no reference to one singular genetic creation of the early human races, or a solid certainty to the fact that mankind was genetically created by one single god. In fact, a multitude of gods and goddesses created the human race, as it exists today in its final form.

V. The Earth-made human creatures created from a cell:
The early quasi-human beings were created from a single cell.
The Ulema said that the Anunnaki’s matrix mentioned earth-made quasi human creatures who originated from single cell organisms.
Those creatures were an organism that looked like bacteria. And the primordial bacterium was in fact, the very first life-form on planet earth. These appeared as tiny mini-microscopic organisms that used chemical energy (chemosynthesis). They did not need the sun to grow and develop via photosynthesis.
In fact, these early organisms existed long before photosynthesis developed on planet earth. This explains the reason for their deformity, and horrific dysmorphic features (Dysmorphism).
Those creatures were Earth-made, and first appeared in Australia, Brazil, and Madagascar, but not in Africa. They were not created by any “God”.

VI. The space-made human creatures:
Some of the very early human races (The genes, DNA) were originally created in space. Their life started within the clay found inside comets. The amazing aspect of this explanation is the fact that only recently, leading scientists and university professors in the United Kingdom have stated, that in fact, the inside of comets contains gluey material identical to heated clay.
Once this comet clay is mixed with earth’s water, it creates cells, molecules and membranes.

In other words: LIFE. Thus, these humans or life-forms were not created by a "God".

VII. The Basharma early creatures:
Metabolism and the ocean-made human creatures:
The Anunnaki's matrix also revealed the existence and origin of early human-like creatures who lived at the bottom of the oceans. The Ulema explained that one of the earliest life-forms on planet earth began at the very bottom of the oceans, where metabolism originated.

VIII. Metabolism created an early human-like form:
Those creatures had a human skull, two eyes without retina, two legs and four long arms, but no nose, no ears, and no hair on their bodies.
They were called the Basharma'h. (Bashar means human race, and Ma'h means water.) Later on in history, these two words were added to several ancient Near and Middle Eastern languages; Mem in Hebrew, Mayim in ancient Aramaic; Ma' or Maay in Arabic, etc…

IX. Bashar category:
According to the Ulema, Bashar (Human beings) appeared on planet earth in a multitude of forms and shapes.
Excerpt from their Kira'at (Reading):
On planet earth existed many different human races for millions of years. Some are known to us, while many others are totally unknown because they have vanished without leaving a trace.
The truth is that they have left many traces, but we did not discover them yet.
In the near future, we will discover some of their remains, and a new chapter on the history of mankind will be written.
However, in 2003, the skeletons of four vanished early forms of humans (who did not look like humans) were discovered by English archeologists and anthropologists, but were shrouded in secrecy, and their discoveries were never made public for many reasons.
These skeletons were about 8ft to 9ft tall, possessed a thin long tail, and their remains were discovered in England, Germany, Africa and Palestine/ what is today known as Israel.
Two leading and extremely powerful Catholic theologians were behind the cover-up. Some of those early quasi-human forms were 10 feet in height, and others less than 2 feet, and looked like hobbits.
Those species were created by various extraterrestrial races. The Anunnaki did not take part in the creation process of these very tall and very small quasi-humans.

The extraterrestrials created them on planet earth.
But there are other early human beings who were created in space, and on other planets, and like the very small and very tall species, who were not part of the evolutionary process of the modern human beings.
In total, 36 (Some say 46) different human and quasi-human species lived on planet earth in many regions of the globe. And none of them were created by the God we know and worship. After all, they did not look like humans, and if we have to believe that humans were created in the image of God, as Judaism, Christianity and Islam tell us, then, most certainly those early 36 different species who looked like ferocious beasts, were not made in the image of God.
Because they were created in many regions of planet earth, and interbred around the globe, new horrifying species populated the planet.
So the "out-of-Africa" theory is entirely wrong. Humanity did neither start in, nor expand from Africa. All those species died out after very short lifespan, as they did not have installed in their brains, the Anunnaki's Conduit.

X. An-Nafar Jinmarkah humans:
An-Nafar Jinmarkah is the name for the humans who walked on three legs, supposedly created by non-terrestrial geneticists who have visited earth some 450,000 years ago.
Some ufologists suggest that they were genetically created by the Igigi. Some authors have claimed that the Igigi have created a very primitive form of human beings, lacking intelligence and mobility. The Igigi considered the early quasi-humans to be not much more than machines with limited mental faculties, and those early forms of humans looked like apes.

The Earth was extremely cold at that time (between ice ages), and the Igigi had to cover the human bodies with lots of hair to protect them from the elements. It took the quasi-human race thousands of years to evolve into an early human form, and even then not totally human, still looking like apes.
Some of them had bizarre skulls and facial bones. The Igigi actually experimented a bit with the early human-forms.
First, they created the "Nafar Jinmarkah" meaning 'individual on three legs.' They consisted of a very strong physical body but it lacked agility. These bodies were created to carry heavy loads. The purpose of three was to support heavy loads that they could lift and carry.
Later on, the Igigi worked on a new human form that consisted of a body with only two legs, in order to bring speed and better agility. Yet, early humans remained terrifying, looking nothing like the Biblical descriptions.

The Igigi tried several times.
And each time, they faced a problem in designing the human skull. Early Igigi creators did not want to put brains inside the skull so the human-like forms would not think. These early human-forms were the world's first biological robots.

XI. The Shula with programmed brains:
Humans with programmed brains.
From the Secret Doctrine of the Ulema.
According to M. de Lafayette, the Ulema said that the many and different categories of early humans were not (All of them) mentioned in the Akkadian tablets.
Those "human creatures" mentioned in the Babylonian epics were intentionally selected by the Babylonian scribes, and authors of Mesopotamian myths for specific reasons. One of the early intelligent human races were the Shula.
They were different from all the other species, because they had a well-developed brain, which was programmed by the Anunnaki. This race was experimented upon in Arwad.
The Shula were about 5ft 1 to 5ft 4 on average, on the chubby side in stature, and more resourceful than we are today, as they had larger brains.

In one of his fascinating Kira'ats, Ulema ben Zvi said:

- 1-You can reprogram yourself and adjust your genes. The Anunnaki, and the sages of Melkart taught the enlightened ones, and the righteous ones how to do it.
- 2-Your body is a biological machine, like so many other machines here on Earth, in the universe, and beyond.
- 3-Some machines run on fuel, others on atomic energy…your body is very special, and a great mystery, because it runs on a substance known only to very few people in the world.

Is it your blood?
Is it the oxygen you breathe in the air?
Is it your soul?
Is it the mind of God?
Is it your essence, your Chi, your DNA, or all of the above? Or perhaps something we cannot touch, we cannot see, we cannot measure, and consequently we cannot understand, or be sure of?

- 4-You were taught that the human body is created from a male's semen and a female's eggs. That is very true. But this semen and these eggs must have "something" extraordinary, something non-physical to allow a physical human body to perform physical and non-physical acts such as writing poetry, epics, music, symphonies, and love letters, to measure light, to read others' thoughts, to communicate telepathically, to fall in love, to think about new ideas, and possibly to escape the laws of physics. This very special and extraordinary "something" is somewhere…not necessarily in the semen and the eggs…

- 5-Although, we are all human beings, the truth is, we did not all come from the same origin. Some were born here on earth, others were born elsewhere… in other dimensions and far distant spheres. And yet, we have many things in common, because we were created by the same Khalek (Creator,) and his assistants.
- 6-We are not an assembly-line product. We are not like automobiles, all manufactured and assembled exactly the same way, by the same plant.
- 7-This is why each one of us is different. And this difference exists, because each one of us was created in a different plant, according to different specifications, and a very distinct genetic-programming process.
- 8-Those who created us know these specifications and what went into our creation, thus, they can reprogram us, alter our properties, give us a new form, new faculties, and reduce or increase our life span.

At the time we were created, three things happened to us:

- 9-At the time we were created (designed, produced, manufactured, etc.), three things happened to us, and are directly related to (a) intelligence, (b) luck/success in life, and (c) health/youth/longevity.

a-The Brain Motor:

A brain was designed and instantly tested.
The brain was created before the body took shape and form.
And in this brain, all faculties were installed.
A copy or blueprint of the brain (Mind) was duplicated and stored in an etheric (fourth) dimension aka "ED" (This is the best way we can describe this dimension for now).
This ED is similar to a cosmic net that consists of trillions and millions of trillions of canals, stations, terminals and channels, all connected together, yet functioning separately according to very specific frequencies and vibrations.
Once these faculties are installed and begin to function, no matter at what rate or level, they become a permanent and final fixture of our thinking process, i.e. intelligence, logic, creativity, etc.
However, these faculties will get better and better by constant learning and acquiring new knowledge.
This is only possible, if the Conduit (Installed by the An. Na. Ki or other non-terrestrial geneticists-creators in your brain's cells) has more room for improvement.

The capacity of the Conduit is usually detected at an early age, between 3 and 5.
Many of the greatest geniuses on earth manifested the Conduit's capacity and potentials during this short and early period of time.

b- The vibrational dimension:
Creation of a place for the vibrations of our mind.
Nothing in the physical and non-physical dimensions exists, continues to exist, and functions, without vibrations and frequencies.
When these rays (Vibrations and frequencies) get damaged or cease to radiate or emanate, the organism stops to function.
In other words, the brain (Mind) as a motor dies out instantly. When our creators designed this motor during the first stage of manufacturing us, they carefully tested and measured the frequencies and vibrations of the brain, and adjusted the level of its creativity.
At this very moment, they created a space for this creativity, called the vibrational dimension.
Now, if these vibrations resonate in synchronization with the vibrations of the canals and channels of the cosmic net, the person who has this kind of vibrations will be a very luck y person, but not necessarily a righteous one. In other words, either you were born lucky, or unlucky, and you are going to stay lucky or unlucky for the rest of your life, and there is nothing you can do to change your luck.
However, Master Li said: "It is not totally the case…although you have no control over your destiny and luck, your Conduit will be able to ameliorate your chances if it is activated by your Double. The sad part of this story is that many of us either do not believe in a Double, or do not accept the idea that a Conduit does in fact exist in our brains' cells."

c-The Conduit=Health/Youth/Longevity:
Those who have read my books are now familiar with the concept of the Conduit.
For those who didn't, here is a brief description of the nature of the Conduit.
Basically, the Conduit is a depot of everything that is YOU; intelligence, emotions, feelings, attributes, qualities, talents, health, dreams, physiognomy, ability to learn many languages, creativity, endurance, and yes, your future as well.
At the time you were born, a Conduit was installed in the cells of your brain. If the Conduit has been activated, then everything you touch will turn into gold, all your deeds will become honorable, and you will be destined for greatness. If the Conduit remains inactive, you will lead a normal life, nothing spectacular about it, and continue to live a very ordinary life like all the others.
A miniscule, infinitely small part of the Conduit deals with health, youth, and longevity. And this very small part has been already programmed by those who created you. You can't deprogram it. You can't find it. And you can't reach it. It is way beyond your reach and comprehension. So let's leave it at that for now.

In the Conduit, your life-span has been formulated and its length and/or continuity has been decided upon genetically. Some people will die young, others will live for 100 years.
Some people will grow up to be very tall and physically strong , despite malnutrition/a good diet, while many others will stay short, fat, or weak despite their healthy life style, good diet, and impeccable hygiene.
Physicians and scientists are so quick to say: It is in the genes! And they stop there! But one thing they don't know for sure is what or who created those genes, and according to what guidelines, specifications and creation process?
They don't know.
Well, the Ulema do know, because they have learned it from their teachers the An. Na.Ki.
You can't control longevity, youth and your life-span by deprogramming their genetic codes, because first of all, you don't know where to find these sequences, secondly, you have no control over the Conduit, and lastly, you don't know how much to add to, or subtract from, the genetic codes.
If you do, if you know for a fact, how to prolong the vibrations of these sequences and how much "stuff" to add to the Conduit, then, and only then, will you be able to control your life-span.

Ulema Marash said: "It is like filling up your automobile gas tank. The more fuel you put in your tank, the more miles your car will run.
The difference, is that at the gas station, you are in control, because you can decide how much gas you want to buy. But when it comes to being young and living forever, firstly, you don't know where the youth station (in comparison to the gas station) is, and secondly, you are not in control of your Conduit (in comparison to your car)." "The good news", said Ulema Albakr is that a Conduit can be activated and/or reactivated if training and orientation programs are completed.

XII. The Shula species:
The Shula were human beings with a very high degree of enlightenment. Those are the ones who distinguish themselves with prolific work, exemplary generosity, unconditional love and compassion, and above all, a unique sense of creativity. Some Ulema call them "Ana'a Alnour", the children of light. However, they are not the Mounawariin "The Enlightened Ones", or the "Ascended Masters". One of their characteristics and traits is the Fik'r, which means the faculty of using their brain to accomplish what others thought impossible, and because of the astonishing speed of their productivity.

Their programmed brain uses the "Jaba", which enable them to accomplish many tasks instantly and simultaneously. This has disturbed many people, and led them to question the veracity and authenticity of their work. It appears to them be too fast, too fascinating and too extraordinary to be true.

But Ulema Yazid explained, "Many can accomplish the very same things, if they reprogram the "Zaka", meaning the sequence of intelligentsia flux (one of the sequences of the Conduit).

XIII. The Emim: Ana'kh/Sumerian/Hebrew.
Name given to the children of Anak. The Bible referred to them as the offspring of the giants and the women of earth. They are the corrupted offspring of the Anakim.
Here are some excerpts from the Bible:

- Jos: 11:21: "And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakim from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities."
- Jos: 11:22: "There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained…"
- Jos: 14:12: "Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the Lord spoke in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakim were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said."
- Jos: 14:15: "And the name of Hebron before was Kirjatharba; which Arba was a great man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war."

The Ulema called them "B'nai Rouch", meaning the offspring or children of the light, who were capable of extraordinary deeds.

XIV. Ezakarerdi, "E-zakar-erdi "Azakar.Ki":
Term for the "Inhabitants of Earth" as named by the Anunnaki, and mentioned in the Ulemite language in the "Book of Rama-Dosh." Oppositely, extraterrestrials are called Ezakarfalki.
"Inhabitants of Heaven or Sky".
The term or phrase "Inhabitants of Earth" refers only to humans, because animals and sea creatures are called Ezbahaiim-erdi. Ezakarerdi is composed of three words:

- 1-E (Pronounced Eeh or Ea) means first.

- 2-Zakar: This is the Akkadian/Sumerian name given to Adam by Enki. The same word is still in use today in Arabic, and it means male. In Arabic, the female is called: Ountha (Oonsa).

The word "Zakar" means:

- a-A male, and sometime a stud.
- b-To remember.

In Hebrew, "Zakar" also means:

- a-To remember (Qal in Hebrew).
- b-Be thought of (Niphal in Hebrew).
- c-Make remembrance (Hiphil in Hebrew).

3-Erdi means planet Earth. Erdi was transformed by scribes into Ki in the Akkadian, Sumerian and Babylonian epics.

From Erd, derived:

- a-The Sumerian Ersetu and Erdsetu,
- b-The Arabic Ard,
- c-The Hebrew Eretz.

All sharing the same meaning: Earth; land.
Thus the word Ezakarerdi means verbatim: The first man (Or Created one) of Earth or the first man on Earth, or simply, the Earth-Man.
In other words, the first terrestrial human. The Ezakarerdi were considered the final product of human genealogy.

XV. Ezeridim:
Term for entities or super-beings from the future.
The Ezeredim were not created by the Anunnaki.
In Ufology and paranormal terminologies, they are called chrononauts, a word derived from the Greek Kronos, which means time, and "nauts" referring to space travelers, or simply voyagers.

XVI. Fari-narif "Fari-Hanif":
Or simply Ra-Nif.
A term for categorizing different forms of spirits, and non-physical entities.
The Anunnaki referred to many different forms, shapes and ratings of entities, known to the human race as "Spirits" and "Souls". From "Ra" and "Ra-Nif" are derived the Semitic words Rouh, Rafesh, Nefes, Nefs, Roach, and Ruach, meaning the soul in Arabic, Aramaic and Hebrew.

"The truth is they are neither spirits, nor are they messengers of God, but a projection of a higher level of goodness and intelligence…and those who (after their physical death on earth) enter a higher dimension, would meet the angels in the Fourth dimension as meta-plasmic presences, emanating beauty and goodness, but they are not divine spirits or pure souls…" added Ulema Bakri.

XVII. The Anunnaki-Ulema from Ashtari:
Some of the Anunnaki Ulema on Earth today, were created on Ashtari in human form, gestated in the Anunnaki light tube via the same process as Anbar Anati's daughter, then brought to Earth either as children (who would then join the Ulema Mahad school), or would arrive on earth as adult Masters.

The lower level of Ulema (third and fourth level) would be created via an "immaculate conception" process wherein the mother (who was genetically created by the Anunnaki and brought to Earth for the purpose of being a vessel to give birth to these Ulema babies) carries the baby within her for only a period of three months – enough to give him/her human attributes and properties.
At three months of pregnancy, the mother is taken to a clinic found within the Mahad to deliver the baby. The baby is taken from within her by an apparatus that "sucks the light molecules of the baby" into a large test-tube where the baby continues to develop and grow. The baby will be nourished with a form of liquid light for an additional three months, at which point it is fully developed and has gained more human properties, attributes, organs etc.
As soon as the baby is delivered from the light tube, it is placed in the care of one of the Masters, who then becomes his/her tutor and guardian for life.
The infant remains in the care of the Master at the Mahad for a period of three years, at which point his/her conduit is opened, and his/her brain is rewired, according to decisions made by the chosen enlightened master, as to what role the child will play on Earth, in the future.
Thus his/her talents and special abilities are decided upon in infancy, by his/her personal master.
At the age of three, the master then places the child with a carefully screened and chosen adoptive family.
The male children created this way are called the "Beninourim", which means the son of the light. The female children are called the "Bnatnourim", which means the daughters of the light. (As usual, outsiders and conspiracy theorists, and people with wild imaginations will rush to call them Reptilians, Shapeshifters, children of the Illuminati etc, intentionally implanted within our societies to influence governments and take over the world!!)

However, the purest form of Ulema known as “Tahiriin” (The Pure) who are the first level, and “Mounawariin” (The Enlightened Master) who are the second level, also have etheric as well as physical-human forms. These are the human beings from other dimensions, and far different spheres that are here on Earth.

Anunnaki-Ulema extraterrestrial esoteric and mind-power techniques

Questions by Steven Morello

Question: What techniques and practices can help us become more spiritual and more open to the 'paranormal' such as seeing auras, ghosts or spirits, seeing into the future etc?
What effect can this awakening have on our lives?

Answer:
In the “Book of Ramadosh”, I wrote about 13 Anunnaki-Ulema techniques to achieve what you are looking for.
Full details on how to use these techniques step-by-step are outlined and itemized in the book.
Here is a summary/synopsis of the definition of the techniques:

1-Gomari “Gumaridu” technique:
A term referring to an Anunnaki-Ulema technique capable of manipulating time. It is also called the “Net Technique”.
Ulema Rabbi Mordachai said: “Human beings treat time as if it were linear. Day follows day, year follows year, and task follows task. The Anunnaki Ulema, however, have long ago learned how to treat time nonlinearly, and thus be able to accomplish more in their lives.”
Ulema Rabbi Mordechai talking to his student Germain Lumiere, who visited with him in Budapest, where he resided for some years, “It would be beneficial if you could manipulate time in such a way as to be faster than normal people, and this is what we are going to do in the forthcoming exercise (Gomari)…”

2-Gomatirach-Minzari “Gomu-Minzaar” technique:
Known also as the “Mirror to Alternate Realities.”
Rabbi Mordechai said: “Building and using the Minzar is risky.
However, if the student reads the instructions carefully and does not deviate from them, it should be a reasonably safe procedure. If you choose to try it, this may be one of the most important lessons you will ever learn, since the benefits, both physical and spiritual, are without equal."

Note: From Ulema Rabbi Mordechai's Kira'at (Reading):
"Those who are familiar with the concept of the Anunnaki's Miraya would notice a resemblance in the way these tools are used. However, one should realize that we are not pretending to use the kind of cosmic monitor that is connected, through the Akashic Libraries on Nibiru, to the Akashic Record itself.
It is beyond our scope to even conceive how such a tool had ever been created. Nor are we attempting to recreate the kind of Minzar that is used by the Anunnaki-Ulema, enlightened beings whose Conduit has been opened.
Most of us possess a Conduit that has not been opened, and the Minzar we recommend is fitted to our level of advancement. Nevertheless, working with the Minzar will open doors that will astound and amaze any student.
You will be using the techniques to create an alternate reality that will allow you to do things you have never imagined are possible."

3-Gubada-Ari technique:

The Triangle Of Life Technique.
Term referring to the Anunnaki-Ulema "Triangle of Life", and how to apply the value of the "Triangle" shape to health, success, and peace of mind. Most importantly, it shows you how to find the healthiest spots and luckiest areas on earth, including private places and countries, and take advantage of this.
Ulema Rabbi Mordechai explained the concept, importance, and practical use. He said (Verbatim): "How this technique will enhance your life:
With the help of the triangle, you will able to find the perfect areas on earth where your health, success, and peace of mind will be at their optimum. You can work it on a large scale and find out the best countries to live in, or on a small scale, which would give you the best neighbourhoods in your own city or county."

Synopsis of the Theory:

- There are lines of energy spinning around the world. In this exercise, we will concentrate on the lines that are revealed by the use of the triangle.
- The energy flows in currents, both negative and positive, mostly underground, traversing the globe.
- Those who live above the positive lines, will have good health, success, and peace of mind. Those who live above the negative lines, will have bad health, lack of success, and will experience mind turmoil.

- The meaning of life is based on the fact that life is, in itself, a triangle.
- One corner of the triangle represents health.
- The second represents success.
- The third represents peace of mind.
- You find meaning by placing the triangle you are about to draw, on the world.
- The student might ask, where do I put the triangle? How do I choose the right location? The answer is, you put the triangle wherever you are.
- The student might ask "what if I change locations?" The answer is, this technique is working within the dictates of the moment.
- Wherever you are, the triangle follows. Change it as many times in life as you need. It always works.

4-Cadari-Rou'yaa technique:
Reading the Aura.
Name or term for a secret technique developed by the Anunnaki- Ulema, centuries ago, that enabled them to read the thoughts, intentions, and feelings of others.

It is composed of two words:
- a-Cadari, which means a grid; a plasma-screen.
- b-Rou'yaa, which means vision; perception.

Cadari-Rou'yaa is also a method to diagnose health, and prevent health problems from occurring in the present, and in the future, by reading and interpreting the rays and radiations, a human body diffuses on a regular basis. In the West, it is called reading of the aura.

5-Chabariduri technique:
Remote viewing.
Name of an Anunnaki-Ulema technique/exercise to develop the faculty of remote viewing.
The Ulema taught their students the art and science of remote viewing, in order to improve their knowledge, enrich their awareness, and widen their perception of life, not to spy on others, as it is the case in the West.

6-Daemat-Afnah technique:
How to Stay and Look 37 Permanently.
Term for longevity, and halting the process of aging.
It is composed of two words:

- a-Daemat, which means longevity.
- b-Afnah, which means many things, including health, fecundity, and longevity.

According to the Anunnaki-Ulema, we are not programmed to age.

7-Da-Irat technique:

Name for Anunnaki's "Circle Technique"

Da-Irat is known to the Enlightened Ones and Ulema adepts, as the "Circle Technique" (Da-Ira-Maaref), which means the circle of knowledge.

This technique eliminates stress, through one's self-energy. In other words, it is an Ulema technique used to energize one's mind and body, and to eliminate worries, that are preventing an individual from functioning properly everywhere, including the office, home, social gatherings, etc.

In the western world, zillions of techniques to reduce stress and counter bad vibes were proposed. And many of those techniques work very well.

The following will explain the Ulema's techniques that were in practice for thousands of years, in the Near and Middle East.

No physical exercise is required. It is purely mental, although some of the steps might look esoteric or spiritual in nature.

These techniques were developed by the early Ulema and members of the "Fish Circle", a brotherhood of the ancient island of Arwad, where allegedly, remnants of the An.na.Ki (Anunnaki) lived, and developed the Mah-Rit in sophisticated genetic labs.

The Da-Irat Technique (The Circle Technique) as used by the Fish Circle Brotherhood:

Terminology:

- 1-In Ulemite, it is called Da-Irat (Circle; sphere).
- 2-In Ana'kh, it is called Arac-ta.
- 3-In Phoenician, it is called Teth-Ra. Teth is circle or good thing. Ra is creative energy or first source of life.

8-Dudurisar technique:

Name for the act or ability to rethink and examine past events in your life, change them, and in doing so, create for yourself a new life and new opportunities.

To a certain degree, and in a sense, it is like revisiting your past, and changing unpleasant events, decisions, choices, and related matters that put you where you are today.

9-Arawadi technique:

A term for the supernatural power or faculty that allows the initiated ones, to halt or send away difficulties, problems and mishaps into another time and another place, thus freeing themselves from worries, anxiety and fear.
It is a very complex concept that touches metaphysics, esoterism and quantum physics. Ulema Stephanos Lambrakis said that it is very possible to get rid of current problems by "transposing" them into a different time frame.
He added that "all of us live in two separate dimensions so close to us.
One we know and we call it our physical reality, the other is the adjacent dimension that surrounds our physical world.
Enlightened ones visit that dimension quite frequently.
It is a matter of a deep concentration, and perseverance. In fact, it is possible to enter that parallel dimension and leave there all your troubles, and return to your physical world free of worries and problems."

10-Baaniradu technique:
Baaniradu is the Anunnaki-Ulema term for the healing touch technique. It was first used by the priests of Melkart in Ancient Phoenicia, Ugarit and Arwad. It is extremely important to bear in mind, that this technique does not in any shape or form, replace any scientific and medical treatment(s). Baaniradu has not been fully explored and used in the West.

11-Baridu technique:
Baridu is the Anunnaki-Ulema term for the act of zooming into an astral body or a Double. We have used the expression "Astral body", because of the Western readers' familiarity with what it basically represents. This representation is not the depiction usually used by the Ulema, but it is close enough, to use it in this work.

12-Bisho-barkadari "Bukadari" technique:
Bisho-barkadari "Bukadari" is the Anunnaki-Ulema term for the technique used in blocking bad vibes that negatively affect human beings.
It is composed of two words:

- a-Bisho, which means bad; negative.
- b-Barkadari, which means flames; rays, vibes; beams.

On different dimensions and multidimensional beings

Questions by Steven Morello

Question: What dimensions lie beyond the 4th, that we can experience?

Answer:
According to quantum physics, there are eleven dimensions. Up to a few years ago, scientists believed in only 7 dimensions.
And do not forget that the theorist and eminent scientist who advanced the theory of the 11 dimensions had been ridiculed by peers for 11 years! And unfortunately, he also lost one of his teaching positions.
But finally and thankfully he has recently been vindicated. Yes sir, they ridiculed him and disgraced him for years!
According to the Ulema, there exist far more than eleven dimensions. I have already answered this question in another section of this book. Never mind, I am glad to give you more information and accommodate your question.
Quantum physics pioneers compared the multiple dimensions of the universe (Multiverse) to strings. And quite correctly added, that the universe was created by collisions of membranes (M theory). And this collision is continuing as we speak. Thus, they concluded that the universe is expanding. Well, the Catholic priest and scientist, Christian Lemaitre said the very same thing 90 years ago.
Einstein reviewed his theory and commented: "Your math is correct, but your physics are lousy!" Einstein was wrong.
Centuries ago, the Ulema have stated (As I have mentioned in my previous books) that the known universe was created by several collisions of bubbles.
In 1961, when I reported this to several scientists and some of my colleagues (authors), they laughed at me and at the Ulema! I didn't mind, because I laughed too.
There is an enormous difference between traditional science, avant-garde quantum physics and Ulema science-metaphysics-metalogic.
The Ulema views are based upon science and knowledge gained from the Anunnaki. What they have learned from the Anunnaki Sinhars, remains incomprehensible to most of us.
But I can assure you that a few extraordinary scientists strongly believe in the astronomy and cosmogony of the Anunnaki, and honestly admitted that our mind is incapable of understanding the Anunnaki's highly advanced science and technology.

The Anunnaki saw our universe before we were born. And they witnessed the birth of many stars, planets and galaxies!
According to Ulemite literature, the Anunnaki told the Ulema that there are several "Layers" and "Outer-Dimensions" beyond the boundaries of planet Earth. Some are purely mental, others are physical.
And even in the "Mental Sphere" you will find multiple spheres and zones, which are extra or para-mental. This applies also to the physical planes, membranes or branes as coined in quantum physics.

Most recently, quantum physics theorists began to admit that within each and every separate molecule, each brane, and each universe, there are multiple universes. But they don't know for sure how these intra-universes were created in one single universe or molecule. Some have advanced the theory, that the inner universe of a global universe (One single molecule) was created by an "Implosion".
Ironically, this is what the Ulema have said centuries ago. We can conclude from the statements of the Ulema, that there are zillions of universes and dimensions beyond our physical world, and these universes are increasing in number, size and mobility. And some are running away from us and from the very fabric of the universe.
This is very convenient to quantum physics pioneers, because it strengthens their theory of "The universe is expanding."

Question: Do other beings exist in these dimensions?
Answer:
Absolutely. According to quantum physics pioneers and leading theorists in the field, (led by Dr. Michio Kaku) there are even copies of ourselves in other worlds.
On the Science Channel in the United States, Dr. Kaku stated that in some universes, Elvis Presley is still alive, Napoleon won the war, and you were never born. I am pleased and relieved that such a fantastic statement came directly from the mouth of an eminent and highly respected scientist. Just imagine if I had said that to people who hate my guts… how they would react, and how gossipy and vicious would the blogs be, posted on cheap websites on the Internet to ridicule and discredit me.
There is vast literature on this subject, part of it written by eminent scientists, and several other parts produced by New Age ufology writers and "Psychics to the Stars". Take your pick. Some researchers have reported to me, that at least two governments have already catalogued the different categories of aliens and non-alien entities living in different universes.

Question: Can we ever contact them, and would there be negative repercussions from doing so?
Answer:
Dr. Stephen Hawking said: "It would a very bad idea!"

Are Earth Governments controlled by aliens?
Question by Ismail Kemal Ciftcioglu, Turkey.

Question: Is it true that lots of Earth governments including the U.S. are controlled or ruled by an Alien race called the Reptilians?
Answer:
No! This is my personal opinion.
I know for sure that no government on Earth is under the control or influence of any reptilian race. Some governments (No more than 3) have joint programs with aliens (Non-humans), but they do not belong to the reptilian race.

a-Winged disc.
b-The Triangle (Delta)
c-The rosette, also called the mushroom.
d-A tree of life inside a circle.

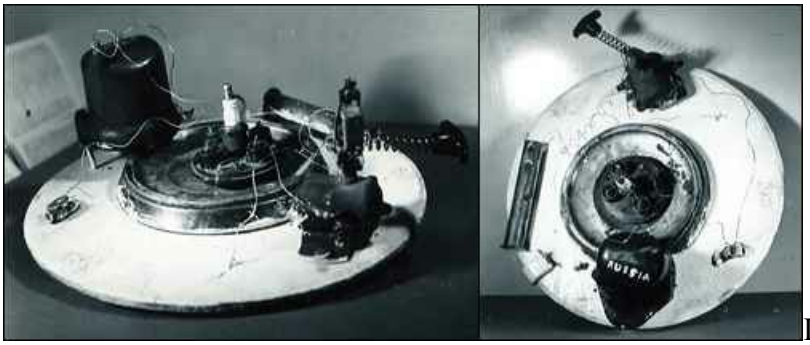
Part Three: For the Record



In late July 1947, a woman in Illinois reported to the FBI office in Springfield that she found the flying disc pictured above in her front yard. The Springfield special agent in charge informed FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover that "the alleged flying disc was obtained and it is apparently the concoction of some of the juveniles in the area. It is an old wooden platter, which has assembled on it a silver plate, a spark plug, a timer, and some old brass tubing. ... No doubt this was someone's idea of a prank."

The FBI and UFOs
Flying Flapjacks, Saucers, and Saw Blades

If you've ever watched The X-Files or other sci-fi shows like it, you may think that investigating unexplained phenomena is one of the FBI's investigative responsibilities- right along with terrorism, espionage, white-collar crime, etc.

In fact, the FBI was only occasionally involved in investigating the possibility of UFOs and extraterrestrials over the years. The first Bureau investigations we are aware of began in the summer of 1947—the time of the now well-known incident in Roswell, New Mexico.

A rash of reports of flying objects, some shaped like "flapjacks," saucers, discs, and even a large circular saw blade that supposedly hit a lightning rod on top of a church started to surface and make headlines across the nation. Concerned citizens reported many of these strange sightings to the FBI.

That wasn't surprising, given that the Bureau had investigated airline crashes such as the Hindenburg disaster in 1937 and aerial dangers like the balloon bombs launched by Japan toward the U.S. Pacific Northwest near the end of World War II.

The FBI's lead role in protecting the homeland during the war was also well known, and the Bureau remained front and center in ensuring national security as the Cold War began to unfold. Initially, it was not clear how UFO sightings should be handled. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover recognized that the Air Force—then part of the U.S. Army—clearly had the lead in such issues, but he did want his agents to investigate any "discs" recovered for their potential impact on FBI responsibilities.

The Army did want the FBI's help—at least at first. FBI: "Majestic 12 document is a Fake."

On July 30, 1947, the Bureau issued this notice to all of its offices: (B) Flying Discs – The Bureau, at the request of the Army Air Forces Intelligence, has agreed to cooperate in the investigation of flying discs….You should investigate each instance which is brought to your attention of a sighting of a flying disc in order to ascertain whether or not it is a bona fide sighting, an imaginary one or a prank.

Three years later, that policy changed.

A July 1950, the FBI statement said that "the jurisdiction and responsibility for investigating flying saucers have been assumed by the United States Air Force.

Information received in this matter is immediately turned over to the Air Force, and the FBI does not attempt to investigate these reports or evaluate the information furnished." From this point, the FBI's cases on UFOs dropped off dramatically. Neither the public nor the Air Force sought our expertise as they had during the first few years of the Cold War.

There were a few exceptions.

In 1977, for example, the Air Force informed us of the end of their "Project Blue Book" investigation of UFO reports. And in 1988, we were asked to look into the release of what appeared to be a 1952 classified document concerning a UFO-related top secret government group called "Majestic 12"—we determined that the document was a fake. Hawking: Leave the extraterrestrials alone!

WHAT SHOULD WE DO IN THE EVENT THE ALIENS CONTACT US?

"It depends on the race that communicates with you or suddenly appears in your world. If they are hostile, there is nothing you can do about it because they are far more advanced than you. It would be a bad day for earth. It is not advisable for your kind to try to communicate with other species, for your own safety…" told us an alien during an initial meeting with the U.S. military that occurred in 1947.

The alien added, "It is best not to try to contact any of the other species because you cannot be sure who you may come in contact with. You may find yourself contacting a race that has hostile tendencies." Numerous scientists were concerned with the possibility of the arrival of aggressive extraterrestrials.
They were referring to some alien races they did not meet with.
They feared the "Unknown."
Dr. Teller reassured them that the aliens he knew were not a threat to us, on the contrary, if well handled, they could become a "formidable asset." Many disagreed.

Dr. Stephen Hawking's comments (Warning) on contacting the aliens

Ironically, some sixty years later, Stephen Hawking suggested that extraterrestrials are almost certain to exist — but that instead of seeking them out, humanity should be doing all it that can to avoid any contact.
"To my mathematical brain, the numbers alone make thinking about aliens perfectly rational," he said. "The real challenge is to work out what aliens might actually be like."
The answer, he suggests, is that most of it will be the equivalent of microbes or simple animals — the sort of life that has dominated Earth for most of its history.

HAWKING WARNED: "WATCH OUT IF YOU WOULD MEET AN ALIEN!"

One scene in his documentary for the Discovery Channel shows herds of two-legged herbivores browsing on an alien cliff-face where they are picked off by flying, yellow lizard-like predators. Another shows glowing fluorescent aquatic animals forming vast shoals in the oceans thought to underlie the thick ice coating Europa, one of the moons of Jupiter.

Such scenes are speculative, but Hawking uses them to lead on to a serious point: that a few life forms could be intelligent and pose a threat. Hawking believes that contact with such a species could be devastating for humanity.
He suggests that aliens might simply raid Earth for its resources and then move on: "We only have to look at ourselves to see how intelligent life might develop into something we wouldn't want to meet.
I imagine they might exist in massive ships, having used up all the resources from their home planet.
Such advanced aliens would perhaps become nomads, looking to conquer and colonise whatever planets they can reach." He concludes that trying to make contact with alien races is "a little too risky".
He said: "If aliens ever visit us, I think the outcome would be much as when Christopher Columbus first landed in America, which didn't turn out very well for the Native Americans." –The Sunday Times, April 25, 2010. Because alien life might not have DNA like us, Hawking warned: "Watch out if you would meet an alien. You could be infected with a disease with which you have no resistance."- Fox News

Transcripts of what the Aliens, Extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrials Told our Governments

The Aliens' Transcripts (AT) are a collection, a record, a detailed account, a huge dossier on all the meetings with non-human entities that occurred from 1947 to the present. The Aliens' Transcripts have a paramount military significance and an enormous national security importance.

This book is based upon the original Aliens' Transcripts which contain thousands upon thousands of pages, sketches, illustrations, charts, graphs, communiqués, notes, statistics, secret Presidential orders, addenda, revised, and re-revised and updated addenda on everything pertaining to encounters and meetings with aliens. AT are strictly and exclusively transcripts of meetings with aliens, extraterrestrials, and the Grays intraterrestrials. And do not expect these transcripts to be declassified. They will never be! Perhaps some of the pages and reports will be made public in 2021, when the "Aliens Protocol" will be released to the general public; another fascinating document on aliens. Even 4 star generals could not access these transcripts. President …tried and failed. Senator…did everything he could to have a glance at AT and he was "sent away". Vice President…inquired about AT, and he was told, there is no such thing as Aliens' Transcripts. A congressional hearing was scheduled to inquire about AT and conduct some sort of questioning, deposition and investigation, but 2 two days later, it was cancelled.

ANUNNAKI GENETIC CREATION

HOW GOD WAS INVENTED BY THE EGYPTIANS, SUMERIANS, PHOENICIANS AND HEBREWS!
THE MOST IMPORTANT ASPECTS AND CHARACTERISTIC
FEATURES OF THE ANUNNAKI TEACHINGS & SECRETS!

ANUNNAKI GENETIC CREATION OF THE HUMAN RACES, DEMONS AND SPIRITS. How God was invented by the Egyptians, Sumerians, Phoenicians and Hebrews! AND WHY THE BIBLE IS FAKE!

The book IS EXPLOSIVE and AUTHORITATIVE! It contains hundreds of photographs, illustrations, maps, sketches and inscriptions, tablets, slabs translated from Sumerian and Akkadian by the author, a world authority on ancient languages and Anunnaki. 5,000 year old tablets demonstrated that WE ARE NOT CREATED BY THE GOD OF THE BIBLE. We were genetically created by the Anunnaki. This book has all the proofs to convince you once for good! The Anunnaki created the human race, God, Gods, angels, spirits and demons before the dawn of the history of Man. Don't be offended, GOD was created by the Egyptian priests, and the Mesopotamian myths/epics. And organized religions are cashing on it! The extraterrestrials created many species and different human races here on planet Earth. But there are other early human beings who were created in space, and on other planets, and like the very small and very tall species, they were not part of the evolutionary process of the modern human beings. In total, 36 (some say 46) different human and quasi-human species lived on planet Earth in many regions of the globe. And none of them were created by the "God" we know and worship. After all, they did not look like humans, and if we have to believe that humans were created in the image of "God", as Judaism, Christianity and Islam tell us, then, most certainly those early 36 different species who looked like ferocious beasts, were not made in the image of "God".

For the first time in philology's history, and chronicles of civilizations of the ancient world, Maximillien de Lafayette, a world renowned expert linguist (Ancient Languages) provides us with the first lexicon/thesaurus/dictionary of the Anunnaki and Ulemite languages. This book is a treasure. It consists of a set of 4 volumes. The last volume focuses on Anunnaki and Igigi language conversation. And YES you will be able to speak their terrestrial and extraterrestrials languages as spoken on Earth and their planet. This unique work consists of definitions of words, etymology, epistemology, the study and linguistic investigation of the derivation and origin of the ancient Middle and Near East languages, Semitic and non-Semitic languages and dialects, including, but not limited to Old Babylonian, Akkadian, Sumerian, Assyrian, Chaldean, Aramaic, Phoenician, Ugaritic, Hebrew, Hittite, Arabic, etc.

Ana'kh is the language of the Anunnaki who descended on ancient Turkey, Mesopotamia, and Phoenicia according to the Ulema. It is of an extraterrestrial origin. Ulema Al Bakr stated that it was used by early the human beings who lived in ancient Anatolia, on the Island of Arwad, in Tyre, Sidon, Byblos, Ugarit, Amrit, and Mu. He added that from the Ana'kh derived the primitive languages of the Near East and the Middle East. Ana'kh was never made public. It remained a secret language known only to the Ulema, and later on to the Allamah. It sounds Semitic, because of its phonetics. But it is "not Semitic at all", said Ulema Ghandar Gupta. It has no grammar, but it has an extremely rich vocabulary and an abundance of metaphoric expressions.

A considerable number of Akkadian and Sumerian words that appeared in the Sumerian, Akkadian, and Chaldean Epic of Creation and the Bible derived from Ana'kh. Around 569 A.D., a group of Ulema (Munawareen) in the Near East (Non-Islamic scholars) compiled an extensive list of Ana'kh words and phrases.

In 625, A.D., two leading figures of the Ulema brotherhood wrote the Book of Rama-Dosh; a compilation of Ana'kh terminology, a lexicon, and Kiraats (Readings). Ulema AL Bakr stated that the Ulema are not member of a religious group. They are neither Muslim nor members of any organized religion. In fact, they were persecuted by the companions of the Prophet Muhammad, and were expelled from the Arab Peninsula. They found refuge in Cyprus and Marseille. But the honorable Ulema was quick to point out that the early Sufi masters, poets and Sufi trance dancers were Ulema. He added that Ulema should not be confused with the Islamic Ulema who teach Islamic law, or with the Allamah who were the leading Islamic figures of science and letters in medieval times. Farid Tayarah, an Ulema himself, and a former head of a Masonic Lodge stated that the Ana'kh was used during Masonic sessions and services. He added that a considerable number of Masonic words and expressions are pure Ana'kh, especially those words referring to levels and degrees in Freemasonry, and initiation ceremonies. Many of the original words of this language, as well as numerous linguistic derivations are included in this book.

This series consists of 2 massive volumes, each exceeding 700 pages (50 MB). This manual is also the Official Anunnaki Ulema Textbook for the Teacher and the Student. De Lafayette wrote more than 800 books, 200 of them are in these fields. Consequently, it is quasi-impossible for the reader to purchase all these books. The present work contains knowledge, techniques and revelations, no other author has ever discussed, simply because they emerge from the teachings of the author's Enlightened Masters and his own philosophy. Add to the fact, that no other author or researcher has ever approached these topics, simply because they were brought to the West, for the first time in history, from the author's own vision and perspective. You will NOT find the material of this book in any other work, and/or in any library. As a matter of fact, the material of the present work (Volumes 1 and 2) is to a certain degree in sharp contrast with what it has been said or written in these fields. No one can claim that this book was inspired by or based upon any existing published book. It is a journey to new dimensions, and analysis of the physical and mental worlds as interpreted personally by the author.
